TABLED IN HOUSE

WOMAN'S PRISON RESOLUTION PUT TO SLEEP.

HOUSE WANTS NO INQUIRY

THE SENATE LIKELY TO TAKE DIFFERENT ACTION.

STILLWELL IS PERSISTENT

AGAIN PRESENTS KENTUCKY FUGITIVE RESOLUTION.

[Special to The Sentinel.]

Indianapolis, Jan. 30.—The resolutions introduced in the house providing for investigation of charges of cruelty and other alleged scandals in the woman's prison, were tabled by the house today. Senator Agnew will introduce similar resolutions in the senate this afternoon and it is thought more than probable that they will be adopted.

Senator Stilwell, who yesterday introduced resolutions calling on the governor to honor any requisition for the return of the Kentucky fugitives, got in his resolutions again today, though they were yesterday declared out of order by Lieutenant Governor Gilbert. It is likely that Senator Stilwell's resolutions will be made a special order for debate in the senate next week.

The house today killed the amendment to the election law providing for punishment of vote-buyers as well as vote-sellers.

PRIMARY ELECTION BILL.

The legislature has progressed sufficiently in its work to attract a great many onlookers. Many visitors attended the sessions held yesterday. Both branches held morning and afternoon sessions, adjourning early enough to permit the committees to dispose of matters set down for hearing. Perhaps the most important event of the different sessions yesterday was the consideration of the primary election bill in the house.

The bill was advanced to second reading, and after being amended in various ways it was ordered engrossed. The consideration of the bill had been made a special order of business for the afternoon. Although the most of the amendments that were made to the bill came from the democratic side of the house, it did not appear that politics cut much figure in the case. The argument over the measure developed a smart opposition from different quarters, and, as finally amended, the bill, if it becomes a law, will only apply to Marion county and the city of Indianapolis. Other cities and towns may have the law if they decide that they want it by voting for it at the first election after the measure becomes operative.

ATTEMPT TO KILL BILL.

Mr. Louttit moved that the enacting clause be stricken out, thus killing the bill. In speaking to his amendment Mr. Louttit said the law would deprive the people of the free right of suffrage and that the bill should die. Mr. James said the gentleman from Allen should amend the bill to suit his wishes and not kill it. He moved the motion to strike out the enacting clause be tabled. The motion carried by a vote of 60 to 27.

To Representative Davis, of Greene county, belongs the honor of having amended the bill so as to make it compulsory only in Marion county. When the bill comes up again it will be on third reading and on its passage. There still appears to be doubt among members as to the final success of the bill, even in its amended form.

In the senate one of the important matters to occupy the attention of the members was the introduction of a number of new bills and a favorable report of the committee on Senator Agnew's anti-trust bill. The bill reappropriating $34,000 for the completion of the soldiers' and sailors' monument was passed under a suspension of rules, the committee on finance reporting favorably on the measure.

THREE BILLS KILLED.

At a meeting of the house elections committee yesterday evening, the three bills before the committee relating to illegal vote getting, were indefinitely postponed. At least the majority will report against the bills, but there probably will be minority reports in each instance. One of the bills was introduced by Mr. Roberts, of Dearborn county, and provided for the punishment by imprisonment of the man who buys a vote. Mr. Slack's bill was to punish both buyer and seller, and Mr. McCarty's related to the intimidation of employes by committee is not disposed to interfere with employers. The majority of the committee the Caraway law, which is intended to have a salutary effect on the custom of vote getting at least.

AN EXECUTIVE MANSION

Messrs. King, Whitcomb and James, of the ways and means committee of the house, and two members of the senate finance committee, met yesterday afternoon to discuss the bill introduced by Representative Scifers providing for the erection of a governor's residence in this city.

The committee favorably considered the bill and referred it to the ways and means committee of the house and the finance committee of the senate, with the recommendation that the bill provide for the erection of the contemplated residence in St. Clair park, which is state property. The bill provides for an appropriation of $75,000 to carry out its provisions.

AN EPILEPTIC VILLAGE.

The committee on benevolent and scientific institutions of the house met yesterday after the house adjourned and decided to report Mr. Cox's bill providing for a village for epileptics, favorably. Mr. Cox's measure provided that the village should be located within six miles of the city of Columbus, but the committee will suggest that this part of the bill be stricken out. The members—six of them at least—are opposed to fixing a place for the village. The legislature may do this if it desires. The bill fixes an appropriation of $200,000 with which to purchase 1,000 acres of land at $40 an acre and erect suitable buildings.

WAS NO WARNING OF DEATH

MRS. PAULINE PELZ EXPIRED SUDDENLY.

Husband Returns After Brief Absence and Finds Life Extinct

—Mortuary Matters.

Mrs. Pauline Pelz, wife of August Pelz, residing at 40 Laselle street, died very suddenly from heart trouble shortly after 6 o'clock this morning. Her age was seventy-three years.

For some time Mrs. Pelz had been under a physician's care, but when the husband arose this morning, leaving his wife still in bed, there was no indication of immediate danger. Mr. Pelz returned in an hour, only to find that she had died during his brief absence from the room. Physicians who were at once summoned pronounced the cause of death to be heart failure.

Mrs. Pelz was a native of Germany and had been a resident of Fort Wayne about forty years. She was married twice, first to a gentleman of the name of Kirchner. Surviving are the present husband, August Pelz, an employe of the Pennsylvania shops, and four children, as follows: Albert, Getto and P. A. Kirchner and Mrs. C. Groves. The deceased was a devoted member of St. Peter's Catholic church.

Funeral services will be held Friday morning at 8:30 from the residence and at 9 o'clock from St. Peter's Catholic church.

SCHOWE.

Sophie Schowe, an aged lady who resided with her adopted daughter, Mrs. Jacob Bill, at 285 East Creighton avenue, died about 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from the infirmities of age. She was seventy-seven years of age.

The funeral services will probably be held Friday afternoon from St. John's Reformed church.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Hildebrand—Funeral services of Mrs. Fredericka Hildebrand will be held at noon Friday from the residence, in Marion township, and at 1 o'clock from the Lutheran church at Soest.

THE ASPHALT WAR.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The reported disorders in Venezuela involving American asphalt interests have not come to the attention of the state department. Minister Loomis has acquainted the department with the fact that the Venezuelan government is willing and anxious to have the merits of the rival asphalt concessions left to the determination of the Venezuelan courts. The state department has decided that this is the proper course to pursue, and has so informed the minister. It is true there has been no lack of insinuations touching the integrity of the Venezuelan judicial tribunals, but the state department does not feel itself absolved on that score from following the well established practice in such cases and refraining from intervention until it shall become absolutely evident that there has been a denial of justice. Therefore the asphalt companies must make their fight before the Venezuelan courts to begin with at least.

Attorney Charles E. Emmanuel, of Auburn, is in the city.

A REVELATION

TROOPS MUTINIED

SERIOUS OUTBREAK ON THE ISLAND OF ST. HELENA.

THE INDIAN SOLDIERS REVOLT

TERRORIZED THE TOWN AND INJURED MANY.

QUELLED BY LOADED GUNS

MUTINOUS TROOPS GUARDED BOER PRISONERS.

London, Jan. 30.—The West Indian troops stationed at the Island of St. Helena, where General Cronje and a large number of Boers are held prisoners, mutined January 2, raided the town, terrorized the inhabitants, injured many of them, defied their officers and were only finally subdued when faced by the muzzles of rifles.

The censor suppressed the news, but the Associated Press has received the story by mail.

The trouble began with a row on the night of January 1 between some blue jackets and a party of West Indians. On the following night the West Indians broke out of barracks and raided the town with clubs and razors tied to sticks. They ran amuck, cutting and beating women, children and men indiscriminately, and attacked the Sailors' Rest, tearing out the doors and windows.

All the efforts of the officers to suppress the mutiny were futile. When ordered to the camp they refused to obey and threatened to dynamite the town.

A strong naval force was landed, the available troops were collected, and the streets were paraded and guarded all night long. At daybreak the troops were drawn up with loaded rifles in front of the place where the West Indians were barricaded. The latter were ordered to surrender and were notified that if they did not do so they would be fired upon.

The mutineers were finally cowed and were taken to the camp, where they will remain under guard until a troopship arrives to remove them.

DE WET AND KNOX FIGHT.

London, Jan. 30.—Lord Kitchener reports to the war office under date of Pretoria, January 29, as follows:

"DeWet has been engaged by Knox forty miles north of Thabanchu. No details. DeWet intends again attempting an invasion of Cape Colony.

"Smith-Dorrien has returned from Carolina, having dispersed the Boers.

"A force of Boers this morning entered Boyeburg and damaged two mines. Commandant Marais is among the prisoners taken."

MAY SEND BOERS TO INDIA.

Calcutta, Jan. 30.—It is reported that Lord Kitchener wishes to send 10,000 Boer prisoners to India. He proposes to locate them in the state of Nilgira, province of Orissa, Bengal.

—Thursday Afternoon—

At 1 o'clock, grand parade, followed by a band contest at base ball park; evening, social session at Princess rink.

—Friday Afternoon.—

Floral parade, to be arranged by the ladies of the city.

—Friday Evening.—

Street carnival for everybody.

INTERESTING SNOW RACES.

Yesterday afternoon the Amateur Driving club members got out their fast steppers and did a little sprinting on West Washington street. They obtained permission to race on the street for a distance of a quarter of a mile, and after placing watchmen at all the street crossings to prevent accidents, the fun commenced. There was nothing formal about the races and was a go-as-you-please all around. The footing was not very good, but at that some very good speed was developed. Today there will be another brush and a little more method will be observed. There will be starters and time-keepers, judges, etc., and a delightful time is anticipated. As yesterday, the crossings will be watched and accidents will be practically impossible. The sport will continue from 1:30 to 3:30. Among the high steppers which will be seen will be W. M. McKinnie, with John N.; Charles MacDougall, with Harry C.; Frank Gruber, with Red Elgin; Charles Gruber, with White Wonder; James O'Ryan, with Bessie O.; Tom Doyle, with Annie D., and Charles Pidgeon, with his little pacing mare.

WILL ATTEND MEMORIAL.

Washington, Jan. 30.—President McKinley and all of the cabinet members will attend the memorial services of Queen Victoria to be held at St. John's Protestant Episcopal church next Saturday morning. The program as now arranged will be carried out unless something unforeseen should occur to prevent.

THE NEWS IN POLICE CIRCLES

RAID MADE ON A GAMBLING RESORT.

Several Sports Put Up Bail Which is Forfeited in Police Court

—Police Notes.

Police court drew a blank this morning as far as personal attendance was concerned, although four industrious gentlemen were represented by an envelope each containing from $16 to $21. The police last evening visited the rooms over Boltz's saloon on Calhoun street and discovered four gentlemen engaged in the engrossing pastime of playing poker. They gave fictitious names and put up cash forfeit for their appearance. They all defaulted and made their contribution to the school fund.

The case against John F. Peters for assaulting Essa Sahlemy, the Assyrian, last Saturday evening and cutting slits in him with a bread knife, is on trial in the mayor's court this afternoon.

A horse and sleigh without a driver was found on the street at the corner of Main and Fulton streets last evening. The outfit was taken care of and subsequently returned to the owner, a Mr. F. Taylor, living on South Wayne avenue.

Frank Quinn, a messenger employed by the Western Union company, reported the theft of his bicycle last night. It was an Imperial wheel, No. 140,259, and bore a city license tag No. 6204. The police are endeavoring to locate the vehicle.

The whereabouts of Tony Melone, formerly employed on the intercepting sewer is wanted by his father at Chicago.

A report was made last night that burglars had made an effort to enter the house at 351 East Wayne street. The officers investigated but found no traces of any burglars nor any traces of an attempt at burglary.

Superintendent Gorsline has received additional photographs of Pat Crowe, the Omaha kidnapper, together with a notification of an increase in the reward for his capture. The rewards now offered aggregate $50,000, the largest amount ever offered in this country for the capture of a single individual. Detective Coling says he tells just as though he had the money in his pocket.

Complaint was made in a morning paper of the existence of places of bad repute on Columbia street. A citizen stated that he had occasion to visit a saloon on the street yesterday and found women of bad repute in various stages of intoxication loitering about the barrooms. Superintendent Gorsline called Detective Coling and instructed him to visit all places on the street and if he found women loitering to notify them that they must seek other quarters or be arrested. He added that he would personally notify all saloon keepers on the street that they would be arrested every time women were found loitering in their places and that for three offenses their licenses would be revoked by the mayor. The evil was suppressed once before, but after awhile the practice was resumed and has again become obnoxious.

MANY HOMES MADE HAPPY. PERUNA'S WORK.

MR. AND MRS. KINSEY, OF ELK, MICHIGAN.

Mrs. Margaret Kinsey, Elk, Genessee county, Mich., writes to Dr. Hartman, as follows:

"I am well and think I will need no more medicine. I feel so well, and all my old complaints are gone, which were many. I often did not know which way to turn. No one knew what I suffered. For forty-nine years I suffered but now I am cured, for which I thank Dr. Hartman for his advice and good treatment. I keep Peruna in the house all the time and shall never be without it.

"My husband had a cough for nine years. He took Peruna and it helped him. He looks quite young. He works hard every day and is getting fat. He takes Peruna three times a day. You don't know how thankful I feel toward you; I never think of you but to thank you and will do all I can for you."

Congressman J. H. Bankhead, of Alabama, one of the most influential members of the House of Representatives, in a letter written from Washington, D. C., gives his endorsement to the great catarrh remedy, Peruna, in the following words: "Your Peruna is one of the best medicines I ever tried, and no family should be without your remarkable remedy. As a tonic and a catarrh cure I know of nothing better."

Hon. J. H. Bankhead.

There is but a single medicine which is a radical specific for catarrh. It is Peruna, which has stood a half century test. It has cured thousands of cases of catarrh. Ninety times in a hundred, those who have been cured of catarrh by Peruna thought they had some other disease."

The remedy to cure catarrh must be able to reach the mucous membranes, and this is exactly what Peruna does. Peruna operates at the fountain head. Peruna produces normal, clean and vigorous mucous membranes. Catarrh cannot remain in the system if Peruna is used according to directions.

Address The Peruna Medicine Company, Columbus, Ohio, for a free book on catarrh.

HEAR FROM MOSQUITO FLEET.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The navy department received a cablegram today announcing the arrival of the Mosquito fleet at the Canary Islands. This fleet of small vessels consists of the cruiser Annapolis, the converted yacht Frolic and the tugs Wampatuck and Piscataqua. They are en route to Manila for patrol duty in the Philippines. The department has been much alarmed as to the safety of the fleet, because merchant shipping in the same waters has suffered severely.

The bill, under which seven commissioners are to be appointed, provides for the erection of a suitable building for the purpose of making an exhibit of the resources, commercial advantages, mechanical appliances, educational progress and other interests and industries of Illinois.

ALLEN NAMES COMMISSION.

San Juan de Porto Rico, Jan. 30.—Governor Allen, according to the provisions of the law on the subject, has appointed the following commission to represent Porto Rico at the Buffalo Pan-American exposition: J. T. Silva, a banker and merchant; Brioso, a councillor, and Fishback, a former major of volunteers. The salary of the commissioners will be $3 per diem and expenses. The legislature appropriated $10,000 for the Porto Rican exhibit. The council has not concurred in the house amendments to the Hollander bill.

Miss Lizzie Olive, of 154 West DeWald street, is recovering from an illness which kept her in bed six weeks. She is now able to sit up.

Not a Bald-head

"I had a very severe sickness that took off all my hair. I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor and am glad to say that it brought my hair back again and I am not today obliged to be classed among the bald-heads."—W. D. QUINN, Marseilles, Ill., Aug. 25, 1899.

One thing is certain,—Ayer's Hair Vigor feeds the hair and it grows. It could not do differently, for it's Nature's plan. It stops falling of the hair, too, and always restores color to gray hair.

WILL BE HARD ON LOVERS.

If a marriage bill introduced in the Colorado legislature becomes a law that wooly western state will be a mighty poor refuge for love-sick swains and weddings will be a luxury that will have to be well paid for in advance. The bill was introduced by Speaker Montgomery, of the house, and it does almost everything except declare marriage a crime. It provides for a board of medical examiners, to sit ten days a month, to pass upon the physical qualifications of candidates for matrimony. If either of the parties is of a family tainted with tuberculosis, dipsomania, or any of the long list of other diseases that party is to be forbidden to marry. The examination is to cost $15. If both parties are physically fit they must advertise their engagement for ten days in one newspaper of general circulation. If in that time no one should come forward to object to the marriage then by paying $10 more the couple may secure a marriage license. Mr. Montgomery is 66 years old, a widower, and has one son.

CLERGYMEN ARE INVITED.

Messrs. Whitney & Knowles, through the columns of The Sentinel, wish to extend an invitation to the clergymen of this vicinity to witness the presentation of the great religious and historical drama, Quo Vadis, at the Temple theater on Saturday, matinee and night.

INSPECTOR HERE.

Inspector Hoyt, of the rural mail delivery division is in the city. Mr. Hoyt comes to make an inspection of two of the routes now in operation, No. 2 and No. 4, with a view of reporting upon the advisability of some changes which have been petitioned for. Since the post office at Goeglein has been abolished, residents in that section want route No. 2 extended to take in the village.

Quite a large party of Fort Wayne Masons will go to Monroeville this evening to attend lodge in that town and assist in exemplifying degree work. This is a return of the visit made by the Monroeville brethren last Friday.

ARCHITECT'S FOOD.

Grape-Nuts Turned Into Big Buildings.

The duties of an architect are so multitudinous, looking after the thousand and one details required in the construction of large buildings, that many of them suffer from the constant mental applications and require the best of food to keep up their work. The chief draughtsman in the office of E. T. Newberry, Architect, at 1227 New York Life Bldg., Chicago, by name, Henry C. Hengels, says:

"After nine months' constant application in the preparation of the necessary plans and details for the large hotel known as the Post Tavern and the Post building, at Battle Creek, as well as several other large institutions, I found myself in a very debilitated and dyspeptic condition and unfit for work.

"Instead of medical treatment, I used Grape-Nuts Food in place of the usual breakfast cereals. The first few days gave great encouragement, and after a week's use, quite an appreciable improvement manifested itself. Since then, daily use has entirely restored the digestive functions to their natural healthy condition, and I have gained about one pound per week. I am now entirely well and strong again and am able to apply myself to work with more than usual vigor. I consider Grape-Nuts a most valuable food for all brain workers. The help this food has given me is incalculable."

DEMOCRATIC AUTHORITY.

Editor Sentinel:—This is what the Lafayette Daily Journal, the democratic organ of Tippecanoe county, has to say of Mr. Max Pottlitzer and the metropolitan police law:

"In calling Mr. Max Pottlitzer to a second term as police commissioner for the city of Lafayette, Governor Durbin has made a wise selection. Mr. Pottlitzer is by no means a noisy partisan, but he is a democrat, and as the democratic member of the board has discharged every obligation which his party could fairly hold against him. But there is a better word than that to say of Mr. Pottlitzer. The office is a part of what is, at least in theory, a non-partisan body. The chief duty of the police commissioners, under the metropolitan system, is to give the people of the city a good police force; to preserve order; to enforce law; to make safe and secure the lives and the property of the people. In this we are sure that Mr. Pottlitzer has done his full share with the other two members of the board. And the fact that the Lafayette police force is regarded as a model throughout the west is proof sufficient that the work has been well done."

Fort Wayne citizens should carefully note what this democratic paper says is "the chief duty of the police commissioners under the metropolitan system." Fair Play.

WITH OFFICES AT HUNTINGTON.

The officers of the Southwestern railway company are looking about for a suitable location to build a power house at Huntington. Speaking of that and other business connected with the road, the Huntington News-Democrat says: "Mr. Moran says the boilers have been ordered and an immense wheel is included in the equipment. Twelve new cars, each forty-nine feet long, have been ordered and when equipped will in every way be complete. Mr. Moran is quite confident Huntington will be made the home office of the road and the power house. He is also delighted with the progress made on the construction of bridges between this city and Fort Wayne."

The charge of Senator Rawlins, of Utah, that the election of the new senator in his state was accomplished under a deal between the national republican leaders and the heads of the Mormon church, by which the Mormons were promised immunity for the practice of polygamy, should not be left unanswered. The party which refused to admit the polygamist Roberts to congress cannot afford to rest under such an imputation.

Before the time shall come—on May 1—to fix the wage scale in the anthracite region for the ensuing season or year it is possible that another general strike will occur over the continued determination of the allied trust and outside operators not to recognize the National Mine Workers' union in any arrangements made with the labor element at the mines. The union, on the other hand, feeling strong and being well organized, is at present equally bent on forcing recognition It is understood that a demand for a 10 per cent advance over the wages agreed upon last autumn is about to be made by the anthracite workers.

LET JUDGE TAYLOR STAY.

The regular quadrennial fight on Judge Robert S. Taylor, of this city, as a member of the Mississippi river commission is breaking out again. Joseph B. Kealing, of Indianapolis, longs for the place and there will be set at work political influences sufficiently powerful to menace Judge Taylor's retention on the commission. Mr. Kealing's sole claim to such distinguished preferment is that he wants the place and is a republican politician—a politician in the professional sense of the term. There is and there can be no contention of his special fitness for the place any more than there can be any contention of Judge Taylor's unfitness for the place. Probably the most that Mr. Kealing knows of the Mississippi river is that it has its source in the spring lakes of Minnesota, follows a devious southerly course and pours its mighty flood into the great southern gulf. Judge Taylor probably knows the great river better than any man in the country. For many years he has been a member of the Mississippi river commission and the value of his services may be understood from the fact that the most strenuous advocates of his retention on the commission have been the senators and representatives in congress from those states bordering the river. This is true of those states along the southern course of the river wher there are to be consulted the needs of a great commerce as well as the safety of towns, the protection of great agricultural areas and the security of life. These states are democratic and are represented in congress by democrats, but politics has never figured in their view of the work performed by Judge Taylor on the river commission. Intelligent, scientific and conscientious in the discharge of his duties, Judge Taylor has made his office one that renders important service to the Mississippi river interests. Joe Kealing has in mind its $3,000 salary, its possibilities for a species of elegant loafing and occasional triumphant junkets, with nothing to do but pose impressively and bear himself with the air of all wisdom. To displace Judge Taylor with Joe Kealing will be simply to strip a useful and important office of a good investiture to clothe it in unclean garments.

WHY AND HOW.

Fort Wayne needs the auditorium that is the object of the present agitation, because Fort Wayne has no auditorium. It is not highly creditable to this city of 50,000 inhabitants that is without possession of a suitable place of assembly for large gatherings. The design of the citizens now promoting the auditorium project is to correct that short-coming of this otherwise good city. A place is wanted where great political meetings may be held; where conventions may meet; where high class concerts, lectures, musical festivals and like entertainments may be given at prices so low the poorest may not be denied a share in such pleasures; where industrial displays, stock shows, agricultural fairs and such expositions may be given creditably; where, in short, anything and everything of popular kind that cannot properly or conveniently be given outdoors, may be presented. It will take considerable money to erect such an auditorium. A big barren shed could be built for a few thousands of dollars. But Fort Wayne does not want a shed. A building architecturally ornamental and in good taste and perfectly appointed for all purposes is wanted.

If all the people of Fort Wayne could be brought to think alike upon the auditorium question the enterprise would be almost as good as accomplished. If you are right upon this proposition and full of that lively interest in it that ought to be the sentiment of every one in Fort Wayne, you can do the auditorium cause a great deal of good. Convince some one else of his duty to the movement. He in turn will labor with another, and so on. Shortly the entire people will be a unit in supporting the auditorium. Then give to the fund what you can afford. If a dollar be your limit, then let it be a dollar. If you can give more, so much the better. If all the persons in Fort Wayne who can afford to subscribe for from one dollar to five dollars of auditorium stock would do so, the balance would not be difficult to raise among those able to give more. Resolve to do the best you can in the way of subscription and follow this lofty intention with some effective missionary work among those you know best. It will make you a distinct benefactor to the city you live in.

So much has been published recently about the income of the ruler of Great Britain that it is interesting to note that the annual grant allowed by parliament is not large, as such things go in monarchial countries. Indeed it is $500,000 less than the income of the Shah of Persia, $1,000,000 less than that of the King of Italy, about $2,000,000 less than that of the Emperor of Germany and $2,500,000 less than that of the Emperor of Austria-Hungary. Yet it should suffice. The president of the United States, who has vastly greater responsibilities and work along with his vastly greater power, receives $1.825,000 less per year than the monarch of Great Britain.

HELD BY THE YAQUIS.

Tucson, Ariz., Jan. 30.—It is reported that La Canas, a mining camp in Sonora, was held for three days by a band of Yaqui Indians and the people of the camp were at the mercy of the Indians. It seems a large number of Yaquis who are employed at the camp got drunk when paid and purchased all the mescal in camp. The Mexican police were driven from the camp and held outside by a number of Yaquis. Their guns were taken from them and the Americans who attempted to interfere were disarmed. The Indians held high carnival for three days and ran the camp to suit themselves. There were a number of serious cutting affrays, but no one was killed. The Americans set about to quiet the Indians and sober them, and with the assistance of Mexican cavalrymen finally were successful.

GIRL'S COMB EXPLODES.

Beresford, S. D., Jan. 30.—A peculiar accident happened here Sunday in the morning service at St. Mary's Catholic church. Miss Nona Ryan, a young woman about nineteen years of age, sat near and with her back toward the stove, when an explosion took place in her hair, which was wadded upon the back of her head, and immediately her whole head was enveloped in flame. John L. Reedy and Robert O'Reilley tried in vain to extinguish the flames, but found it necessary to cut the hair from her head with a jacknife, the only accessible instrument. The girl will recover. The cause of the explosion was found to be an overheated celluloid comb, which ignited from the heat of the stove.

ELOPES AS AN ACCOMMODATION

Princeton, Ky., Jan. 30.—James Ralston, a farm hand, planned to elope with Bessie Williamson, eighteen, Monday night. He confided his secret to Frank Hope, a friend, who promised to give every assistance necessary. After the two started for the home of the young lady Ralston confessed he would gladly back out if it was possible. After a talk Hope decided to try to help his friend, and, with the girl's consent, took Ralston's place and eloped with her. They went to Cairo, Ill., where they were married.

NINE LOSE VOTES

RAPID DISFRANCHISEMENT OF VOTE SELLERS.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY CASES

A CASE OF REAL IGNORANCE BROUGHT TO LIGHT.

HAPPENINGS IN HOOSIERDOM

GENERAL NEWS OF THE STATE OF INDIANA.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Jan. 30.—The case against Charles Wells for selling his vote was tried before Judge West yesterday and the court disfranchised him for twenty years. This man is the son of Rufus Wells, who was tried by a jury Monday for the same offense and was disfranchised for nineteen years. Wells testified that he could not distinguish colors, could not tell the time of day, did not know how many pennies it took to make a quarter of a dollar, did not know in what town, township, county or state he lived, could not tell the directions, did not know what a loaf of bread, glass of beer or a ton of coal was worth, could not read or write, and the only thing he did seem to know was that he had always voted the democratic ticket and knew the rooster when he saw it, yet he said that he did not know the difference between the democratic and republican tickets. He said he was 40 years old, although he did not know when or where he was born.

Several men appeared before the judge, and entered a plea of guilty, and were all disfranchised for twelve years each. They were James Endicut, John Rankins, William A. Scott and Stephen Robbins. The case of James Osborne was then called, and he demanded a trial by jury, and the case resulted in his being disfranchised for fifteen years. Charles Bogart then pleaded guilty and was disfranchised for twelve years. William Rogers demanded a trial and was convicted and disfranchised for sixteen years William Hinton was disfranchised for twelve years on his plea of guilty.

DOCTOR IS IN HIDING.

Terre Haute, Jan. 30.—Dr. M. J. Rodermund, of Appleton, Wis., who smeared smallpox virus over his hands and face to show the disease is not contagious, and who escaped from the quarantine at Appleton, is in hiding in this city, unless he has succeeded in eluding the vigilance of the police, who have watched all the outgoing trains. Max J. Hammel and Robert J. Koffend, of Appleton, students at the Polytechnic institute here, recognized Rodermund on the streets Monday afternoon. The board of health was notified, but the fact was suppressed from the public so as not to defeat detection. Fred D. Blue, secretary of the anti-vaccination society, practically admits that Rodermund called at his house, but adds that he does not know where he is now. The hotel where Rodermund stopped here under a fictitious name has been thoroughly fumigated. Policemen will continue to watch all outgoing trains.

FIXES NATURAL GAS RATES.

Wabash, Ind., Jan. 30.—At a special meeting of the city council yesterday, which was attended by Sam T. Murdock, of the Natural Gas company, the council notified him that, beginning February 1, it would consent to a meter rate for natural gas of twelve cents per 1,000 feet, and no more. The old ordinance provides that the cost of fuel gas shall not exceed two thirds the cost of wood or coal and during this month the company has installed meters to test the quantity of gas consumed. All contracts are to be canceled February 1. Mr. Murdock said the directors would never agree to a twelve-cent rate and long litigation is in prospect.

CHARLES E. YAGER MISSING.

Waterloo, Ind., Jan. 30.—Charles E. Yager, aged 20, son of Rev. S. H. Yager, of this city, has been mysteriously missing for several weeks. He left here early in January to resume his work at Hillsdale college. After reaching the college he told his roommate that he was going away, and he left a portion of his belongings behind. It is said that he was recently in Ohio, where he was representing a theatrical company.

ATTEMPT TO ROB POSTOFFICE.

South Bend., Ind., Jan. 30.—Five or six youthful thieves entered the postoffice and general store at Woodlawn, this county, yesterday morning by breaking a front window. Postmaster Mochel, who resides across the street, heard the noise and he and his clerk armed themselves with shotguns and ran out. One of the burglars opened fire on them and fired five shots. Mochel returned the fire and filled the face of John Hepler with shot. Hepler was captured, as also was another burglar named Lambert. The others escaped. Hepler is an old offender.

WHITNEY FARM FAKE.

Goshen, Ind., Jan. 30.—The widely-heralded purchase of the B. F. Kitson farm on the north shore of Lake Wawasee by ex-Secretary of the Navy William C. Whitney proves to have been a bold, but unsuccessful, "skin game." A man, who claimed to be the representative of Whitney, working in the interests of Chicago confidence men, sought to interest real estate men in Chicago in the alleged deal by inducing them to purchase the land at a price far in advance of its original cost or real worth for the purpose of transferring it to Mr. Whitney. Of course, the sharpers were to pocket the differences between the actual and the fancy price. This man was at Syracuse several days and had things working nicely, but the fact of a similar fake having been worked at Westville, Ind., and at Wheaton, Ill., coming to the ears of the Chicago real estate men, they dropped the deal summarily. Neither Mr. Kitson nor any of the Syracuse parties interested in the proposed gigantic deal, which was painted as meaning so much for Lake Wawasee and vicinity, lost anything, and no money or other valuable consideration changed hands.

DEMAND $3,000 OF A WIDOW.

South Bend, Ind., Jan. 30.—About ten days ago Mrs. W. W. Dodge, of Mishawaka, widow of the president of the Dodge Manufacturing company, said to be one of the largest pulley factories in the world, received an anonymous letter demanding that on a certain day she place $3,000 at a designated place. The letter, which was illiterate and crude, was vile in language, and threatened her with being blown to atoms in case she refused to place the money as ordered, or if she "squealed" to the officers. Mrs. Dodge at once turned the letter over to the authorities, who are now working on a clew. It is alleged that another wealthy woman of Mishawaka was threatened with death if she did not "give up" a large sum of money, and that she promptly complied with the anonymous demand.

WHERE IS LEWIS TUCKER?

Kokomo, Ind., Jan. 30.—Lewis Tucker, representing himself to be a man of means, lumber dealer and owner of valuable lands and a summer resort at Freeport, Mich., and who has lived in this city for the last three months, became engaged to be married to Miss Estelle Price, a pretty seamstress of this city, and the marriage was to take place Saturday in Kokomo. Miss Price was to receive a deed to 100 acres of land as a wedding present. The family with which Miss Price lived gave her a formal dinner. A few hours before the train left on which Tucker and Miss Price were to leave for Freeport, where they were to be married, Tucker disappeared and has not been seen or heard of since. A number of creditors are anxious to see him.

Try for Health.

Tathan, McDuffie Co., Ga., May 1, 1900.

I was reading your advertisement in the Ladies' Birthday Almanac and saw the wonderful Wine of Cardui prescribed. My health has been so bad for the past two or three years that I decided to try your Wine of Cardui. The first bottle gave me relief and now I am taking another bottle. A friend of mine was so helpless that I recommended it to her, and she is also using it and says it is doing her a world of good. I shall recommend Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Draught in this settlement, as they are wonderful medicines. MARY A. MOORE.

WINE OF CARDUI

You may be as well as Mary Moore. A million women have found relief in Wine of Cardui. It is a fact that ninety women out of a hundred are sick because they never sincerely try to be well. There never was a case of disordered menstruation, leucorrhœa or falling of the womb Wine of Cardui would not benefit and few it would not cure. Do you not think it wise to rid yourself of those terrible aches in the head, back, arms, legs and abdomen? Why do you not try to be free from menstrual suffering; from the continual agony of bearing down pains; from the languid suffering of leucorrhœa? Wine of Cardui builds up and regenerates the diseased organs and gives them strength and tone. If you are sick, and discouraged in the fight for health, try Wine of Cardui. It will bring you a quick cure. A $1.00 bottle which you can buy from your druggist means just so much relief—a healthier and stronger body—less discomfort at the menstrual period. You do not have to spend long months "doctoring". Wine of Cardui starts a cure at once. We ask you to try for health before you give it up! You can be well!

DIE IN HOTEL FIRE

TWO LIVES LOST AND INJURED IN NEW YORK.

JEFFERSON HOTEL BURNED

MANY GUESTS HAD NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

WALKED PLANK TO SAFETY

EDWARD MARSHALL LOST HIS CORK LEG.

New York, Jan. 30.—Two lives were lost at the burning of the Hotel Jefferson, a seven-story building, 102-106 East Fifteenth street, early today.

The damage by fire is estimated at $50,000.

THE CASUALTIES.

The dead are:

Elenora Downing, twenty-five years old, a nurse.

Elizabeth Reynolds, thirty years old, a waitress.

Mrs. Downing was being lowered from a sixth-story window by means of a rope. The rope broke and she fell to the sidewalk, striking on her skull. Miss Reynolds, who was on the seventh floor, was suffocated.

Among those injured were:

John Gallagher, porter; right arm badly burned.

J. Ensign Fuller, feet and arm badly burned.

W. H. Voltz, New Haven, a student on his way to Princeton; hands torn by sliding down rope fire escape.

John Chatfield, proprietor of the hotel; Mrs. Chatfield and her mother, Mrs. F. H. Streator, escaped from the burning building clad only in their night robes.

A THRILLING RESCUE.

J. Ensign Fuller, an elderly man, made a thrilling rescue of his seventeen-year-old invalid niece, Miss May Upperman.

She was in a back room on the third floor. Through the heat and smoke Mr. Fuller carried her downstairs on his back. His feet were terribly burned and as he reached the open air he staggered and fell with his unconscious charge into the arms of a policeman.

Col. William L. Gildersleeve, attache of the supreme court of New Mexico, was caught on the fourth floor. He tried to make his way to the rear. A plate glass door stopped him. He broke it with his fist and crawled through to safety. His face and hands wer badly cut.

Edward Marshall, who lost one leg as the result of a wound received while serving as a war correspondent in Cuba, occupied a room on the second floor of the Jefferson. When he was aroused the halls were filled with smoke. Not waiting to find his cork leg, Mr. Marshall climbed to the fire escape in the rear of his room and one story from the ground. There he found that no iron ladder was available to reach safety. Directly in the rear of the Jefferson is Steinway's piano warerooms, with a one-story extension in the rear. Steinway's watchman secured a board, which he placed from the extension roof to the balcony on the bottom of the fire escape and across this board Mr. Marshall and the others who climbed down the fire escape were rescued.

"There were lively times on the fire escape," said Mr. Marshall. "A dozen people were trying to reach the ground and no ladder was in sight of us. I was almost helpless, having only one leg, and for a time I thought I had not gained any advantage by leaving my room and crawling to the fire escape.

WALKED A PLANK.

"Finally some watchman secured a plank and pushed it across from the one-story extension back of Steinway's and about ten feet from the Jefferson balcony fire escape. Perhaps thirty people crawled across this board to the roof and escaped.

"There was considerable difficulty in getting many of the timid ones to risk themselves on this narrow plank, as the darkness below made it look as if we were fifty feet from the ground. However, the crackling flames in the rear and the shouts of those at the windows acted as an incentive and the hesitating ones were thus induced to cross the plank in safety.

"As I sat on the balcony waiting for the board to come dozens of valises, dress suit cases, personal belongings and articles of clothing passed me with a whirr.

"Guests had thrown them from the windows before climbing down the fire escape. At one time more than a dozen people were climbing down the iron ladder at the same time, few of them wearing anything more than their night clothes.

"Many of those were cut by glass, but none was seriously injured. Several of the women inmates were so badly frightened they had to be carried across the plank."

PROFESSOR GARNER ALL RIGHT.

Boston, Jan. 30.—F. A. Merrill, of this city, who, acting for the Boston parties interested in the work of Prof. R. L. Garner, several days ago cabled money to Professor Garner, has received reply by cable that the money has been delivered to the explorer. This is taken as conclusive evidence that Professor Garner, who had been reported dead, is alive and is prosecuting his investigations. A letter from him is expected soon.

THE ROOT OF THE MATTER.

He Cured Himself of Serious Stomach Trouble Down to First Principles.

A man of large affairs in one of our prominent eastern cities by too close attention to business, too little exercise and too many club dinners, finally began to pay nature's tax, levied in the form of chronic stomach trouble; the failure of his digestion brought about a nervous irritability making it impossible to apply himself to his daily business and finally deranging the kidneys and heart.

In his own words he says: "I consulted one physician after another, and each one seemed to understand my case, but all the same they each failed to bring about the return of my former digestion, appetite and vigor. For two years I went from pillar to post, from one sanitarium to another; I gave up smoking, I quit coffee and even renounced my daily glass or two of beer, but without any marked improvement.

"Friends had often advised me to try a well known proprietary medicine, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and I had often perused the newspaper advertisements of the remedy, but never took any stock in advertised medicines, nor could believe a fifty-cent patent medicine would touch my case.

"To make a long story short, I finally bought a couple of packages at the nearest drug store and took two or three tablets after each meal, and occasionally a tablet between meals when I felt any feeling of nausea or discomfort.

"I was surprised at the end of the first week to note a marked improvement in my appetite and general health and before the two packages were gone I was certain that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets was going to cure completely and they did not disappoint me. I can eat and sleep and enjoy my coffee and cigar and no one would suppose I had ever known the horrors of dyspepsia.

"Out of friendly curiosity I wrote to the proprietors of the remedy asking for information as to what the tablets contained and they replied that the principal ingredients were aseptic pepsin (government test), malt diastase and other natural digestives, which digest food regardless of the condition of the stomach."

The root of the matter is this, the digestive elements contained in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest the food, give the overworked stomach a chance to recuperate, and the nerves and whole system receive the nourishment which can only come from food; stimulants and nerve tonics never give real strength; they give a fictitious strength, invariably followed by reaction. Every drop of blood, every nerve and tissue is manufactured from our daily food, and if you can insure its prompt action and complete digestion by the regular use of so good and wholesome a remedy as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets you will have no need of nerve tonics and sanitariums.

Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been in the market only a few years, yet probably every druggist in the United States, Canada and Great Britain now sells them and consider them the most popular and successful of any preparation for stomach troubles.

DUKE OF YORK ILL

stein, in behalf of King Edward, and various officials of King Edward's household.

His majesty's equerry delivered an autograph message from King Edward to King Charles and the latter and his suite were immediately driven in royal carriages to Buckingham Palace.

King Charles was warmly greeted by the fair-sized crowds which gathered along the route in anticipation of his arrival. There was no military escort.

King Edward visited the King of Portugal shortly afterwards and subsequently proceeded to Osborne. Large assemblages everywhere awaited King Edward and the greetings were very enthusiastic.

During the course of the morning King Edward presided at a meeting of the privy council. The business transacted was of a formal character. The kings of Belgium and Greece will arrive here this afternoon.

WARSHIPS ASSEMBLE.

Portsmouth, Jan. 30.—The warships are already assembling for Friday's great naval pageant. The arrangements, which have been completed, provide that eight torpedo boat destroyers will lead the procession from Cowes, followed by the royal yacht Alberta, with the queen's body on board. The royal yacht Victoria and Albert, with King Edward and Queen Alexandria and the English royal family; the royal yacht Osborne, with other royal personages; the imperial yacht Hohenzollern, with Emperor William, the duke and duchess of Connaugh and others; the admiralty yacht Enchantress and a Trinity house yacht, with officials on board.

The main squadron of battleships and cruisers will be moored two and a half cables apart in one line extending from Cowes to Spithead.

The channel fleet, under the command of Vice Admiral Sir Harry Holdsworth Rawson, will form the eastern portion, and the reserve fleet, under Rear Admiral Sir Gerald Henry Noel, will form the western portion.

The foreign war vessels are to be moored southwest of the British ships in the order of their arrival, and alongside of them will be moored eight British gunboats, the Antelope, Gleanor, Skip Jack, Leda, Rattlesnake, Alert, Circe and Speedwell. After leaving Trinity pier the Alberta, with her attendant escort, will steam along the deep channel between the coast of the Isle of Wight and the single line of battleships and cruisers. The main line will be as follows, beginning at Cowes:

The Alexandra, Camperdown, Rodney, Benbow, Collingwood, Colossiue, Sans Pareil, Nile, Howe, Melampus, Severn, Galatea, Bellona, Pactolus, Perelus, Diana, Conqueror, Arrogant, Minerva, Niobe, Hero, Hood, Trafalgar, Resolution, Jupiter, Hannibal, Mars, Prince George and Majestic.

On arrival at Portsmouth the royal yachts will remain in the harbor that night.

ABOUT THE COURT HOUSE.

Deputy Sheriff Ecks is wrestling with a case of grip. He is still at his desk, however.

This afternoon Justices Huser and Bullerman and Drs. Ladd and Stutz are inquiring into the sanity of George Knoder.

W. H. McIntyre sues the Kerr Murray Manufacturing company for $300 to recover on contract. The plaintiff lives at Ashley and says he ordered a boiler of the defendant, for which he paid $200. The boiler failed to stand the test and was pronounced defective and hence refused by plaintiff, who returned it. The defendant has refused to accept the returned boiler and refuses to refund the money, hence the suit.

Wilhelm Ruchel sues Wilhelm Heider on a note for $325.

The decorators are today erecting a tall scaffolding in the main vestibule on the office floor of the court house and will commence gilding the cornices and borders tomorrow.

BEFORE JUDGE AIKEN.

In the case of Johnson vs. the Fort Wayne Traction company the defendant took a change of venue and the cases were sent to Whitley county.

Similar action was taken in the case of Cull vs. the Lake Erie and Western Railroad company.

In the cases of Scott and Ames vs. the Wabash Railroad company motion was made to dismiss for want of prosecution.

In the case of Scott vs. Quinn, appealed from a justices' court, judgment was for the defendant and the plaintiff was ordered to pay the costs.

The case of Sulgs vs. Hildebrand is on trial before the court.

SUBSIDY BILL IS DEBATED

SENATE TAKES UP SHIPPING MEASURE.

Washington, Jan. 30.—In the senate today Mr. Clapp, the new senator from Minnesota, presented the credentials of his colleague, Mr. Nelson. Mr. Burrows, of Michigan, also presented the credentials of Mr. McMillan as senator from Michigan, elected for the full term of six years from the 4th of March next.

The senate agreed to a resolution introduced by Mr. Jones, of Arkansas, requesting the secretary of war to inform the senate whether the executive council of Porto Rico has agreed to guarantee dividends to corporations doing business in that island.

The conference report upon the army reorganization bill was then presented by Mr. Hawley.

Mr. Hawley explained the report and said the committee on conference had introduced no new legislation in the bill. Mr. Hale asked especially whether there had been any increase of officers in any instance over the numbers permitted by the bill either as it passed the house or the senate.

Mr. Hawley replied in the negative, but Mr. Butler, of North Carolina, insisted that there had been an increase of color sergeants in the artillery provision.

At 2 o'clock the army reorganization conference report, which was under discussion in the senate, gave way to the subsidy bill. Notice was given that the army bill would be called up again tomorrow.

IN THE HOUSE.

Washington Jan. 30.—When the house met today Mr. Taylor, of Ohio, chairman of the committee on elections No. 1, submitted the report of the contested election case of Walker vs. Rhea, from the Ninth Virginia district. The committee found that while gross frauds and irregularities occurred in the election, they fell very far short of changing the result. The committee therefore recommended that Mr. Rhea, the sitting member, who is a democrat, should retain his seat.

Messrs. Linney, of North Carolina, and Samuel Davenport, of Pennsylvania, dissented from the conclusion of the majority and were given leave to file their views. The report will be called up in the near future.

The house then resumed the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill.

The sections of the present law relating to the scientific bureaus of the department were substituted for the provisions in the bill which went out yesterday on a point of order made by Mr. Mahone, of Pennsylvania.

NEW SWITCHBOARDS IN.

The National Telephone and Telegraph company has just installed a new switchboard in its Auburn station. The new board has 300 drops, with a capacity of double that number, and displaces two old boards. On Sunday a similar board will be installed at Kendallville, displacing three of the old pattern. The change in both instances is made necessary by growing business of the exchanges.

The main changes in the contract drawn up for the 1901 season related to the farming, trading and releasing clauses. With the National agreement out of the constitution, the paragraphs in the contract governing a player's transfer to the older body were, of course, stricken off. Hereafter, no American league player is to be sold or traded to another club, excepting with his consent, and, in case of a sale, the financial arrangements must be satisfactory to the player. Instead of a three days' release notice, as heretofore, the time will hereafter be ten. Farming is abolished, save where a player would personally prefer to take a temporary place with some smaller team.

AGED MAN SUICIDES.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 30.—Edward Cornell, a retired hat manufacturer and for many years president of the Hatters' union, committed suicide by hanging last night. Heavy losses in the stock market is ascribed to have prompted the act. Mr. Cornell was 78 years old.

M. Baltes, who was taken suddenly ill at noon yesterday, is still confined to his bed, but his physician, Dr. E. J. McOscar, stated this afternoon that the condition of the patient was more encouraging.

GERMANY WANTS 5,000,000 FOR KETTELER'S DEATH.

THE SITUATION IN CHINA

SIR ROBERT HART TAKES A GLOOMY VIEW.

Shanghai, Jan. 29.—The statement is made here that Russia, besides indemnity, will demand the sum of 30,000,000 taels for restoring Manchuria. It is also said that Count Von Waldersee will demand 5,000,000 taels as compensation for the killing of Baron Von Ketteler, the German minister.

The court is about to send an official to Singapore and other points to appeal to wealthy Chinese for financial assistance. Contributors, it is said, will be suitably rewarded.

SOME HORRIBLE DETAILS.

Berlin, Jan. 30.—A special despatch to the Cologne Volks-Zeitung, from China, relates horrible details about the warfare in that country and says:

"We hope the awful conditions will soon cease. The depravity and bestiality also among our troops is enormously on the increase. Large numbers of old soldiers are sentenced to long terms in the penitentiary and jail for murder, rape or burglary. Our losses are certainly greater that way than by death. Diseases are still rampant, especially typhus. Dissenterry is decreasing. During November there were nine deaths from disease in Pao Ting Fu and also two from powder explosions.

"One magazine containing 450,000 pounds of powder was blown up, but only one man was killed and three men were wounded."

THE SITUATION IN CHINA.

[Correspondence of Associated Press.]

Pekin, China, Dec. 20.—The question as to whether there are really any boxers or otherwise seems to be agitating the minds of the majority of foreigners now in China.

Sir Robert Hart, the director of Chinese imperial maratime customs, who, prior to the outbreak, never believed in the boxers and used to express himself to the effect that a handful of European troops could quell the whole lot of them without any trouble, has now gone to the other extreme and believes the boxer movement to be one that is destined to overrun the country and keep it in hot water with foreign powers and be a perpetual source of danger to foreigners.

It must be admitted that before Sir Robert made these discoveries he lost his house and art treasures, the collection of thirty-one years, at their hands. His loss is estimated at over a million dollars, Mexican, and he is, naturally, despondent in consequence.

That there are many bands of robbers, or boxers, drifting about the country is an unquestioned fact. It is also an established fact that a large body of Catholic converts, led by a French missionary, with a considerable quantity of arms, including seven magazine guns, have been found during the last two or three weeks in different parts, so that the country around Pekin can hardly be called settled and peaceful.

The amount of charity that is being given away daily by the allies is very large and entirely out of proportion to the needs according to the ministers.

Mr. Conger, the United States minister, says that there has never been less distress in northern China than there is at the present time; that larger sums are being paid out every day to laborers than has ever been disbursed before; that the farmers are doing a thriving business, and that the only people in need of assistance are those who are too old to work, the sick and the infirm, and quite a number who, prior to the occupation of Pekin, were men of means, whose places have been looted, whose savings have been taken, and who today are penniless and unable to work. These are, Mr Conger and the other ministers think, should be assisted as far as possible in getting on their feet again.

Of course, with the present indiscriminate charity there are a number of persons receiving alms and rations who manage to collect from two or three nationalities, selling or hoarding up what they do not use for their own necessities.

The policing of the city is being well done by the various nationalities and the provisional government, which is now meeting daily, expects to get to work within the next few days to centralize the power for punishment and in carrying out a general form of municipal government.

Every nation has entered enthusiastically into this work with the exception of the French, who have requested that their district be left out, as they would prefer to manage their own affairs.

As their district at present has the reputation of being the worst it is generally regretted by the other powers that they have not come into the joint agreement.

Charges of character and education will be given the high municipal officers, such as judgships, etc., subject to the supervision of the military committee, of which Captain Dodds, of the Ninth infantry, is the American representative.

FUNERAL OF VERDI.

Milan, Jan. 30.—The funeral of Verdi took place today. Al the authorities followed the bier. The ceremony was most simple, but most impressive, owing to the silent homage of the populace, who were present at the service in immense numbers.

ANDRADE PLANS UPRISING

PLANS OF THE VENEZUELAN EX-PRESIDENT.

Leaves San Juan, Porto Rico, for Cuba, Where it is Believed He is to Meet Filibusterers.

San Juan de Porto Rico, Jan. 30.—Senor Andrade, the former president of Venezuela, sailed from Santiago de Cuba for Havana yesterday incognito. It is rumored that he intends meeting a filibustering expedition, which is reported to be on its way to Venezuela by way of Cuba. He is said to have purchased arms and to have arranged the details of the expedition when in New York last autumn. There is no doubt Andrade is interested in the revolution and in the efforts to overthrow President Castro, who drove him from the presidency in 1899 and caused him to seek refuge here.

People of Porto Rico, however, express the opinion that Andrade does not aspire to resuming the presidency of Venezuela.

He is considered to be a weak man by those who know him here.

FILIBUSTERING DESIGNS.

New York, Jan. 30.—A despatch to the Herald from San Juan, Porto Rico, says:

Announcement that a formidable filibustering expedition is soon to leave Santiago, Cuba, for Venezuela, was made by the Venezuelan consul here. He declares it will be led in person by Ignacio Andrade, former president, who was overthrown by General Castro in the last revolution.

General Andrade, who came to San Juan soon after the beginning of the present trouble in Venezuela and has remained quiet since, sailed this morning for Cuba. He traveled incognito.

The Venezuelan consul has received advices that the expedition is practically ready to sail and only awaits the coming of General Andrade.

A German steamer, he says, is to convey the filibusterers to their destination, which is expected to be at some point on the Delta of the Orinoco, where rebels have already gathered in force.

Several gunboats, however, are patrolling the coast, watching for expeditions.

The consul admits that a serious revolutionary movement in his country is inevitable and that the landing of Andreade will spur the rebellious elements. He declares, however, that President Castro is prepared to cope successfully with his foes.

The attitude of the Washington government has greatly strengthened Castro, he asserts, and the president has imprisoned his chief enemies.

Andrade he regards as secondary figure in the rebellion, which is led by General Pietri.

GOES THROUGH BANKRUPTCY.

New York, Jan. 30.—Judge Brown, of the United States district court, has granted a discharge in bankruptcy to F. Tennyson Neely, book publisher, who filed a petition in bankruptcy on October 21, 1899, with liabilities of $339,531.

Aime Racine, of 29 Cass street, who has been suffering from an inflammation of the veins, is now somewhat better.

LOYAL TO CHURCH

FEW FILIPINOS WILL ABJURE CATHOLICISM.

BUENCAMINO MOST NOTED

FRIAR QUESTION WILL GET LOCAL SETTLEMENT.

THE MABINI DEPORTATION

THE CASE GIVEN ATTENTION IN WASHINGTON.

Manila, Jan. 30.—All the Filipino leaders of the federal party assert their continued fealty to the Catholic church, excepting Buencamino, Rosario and Mere.

The church authorities, while intimating that there is no intention of returning the friars to the localities where the people object to them, have not assured the representatives of the government to this effect.

Both the legislative and executive authorities are determined to permit the utmost freedom of worship, but Judge Taft, president of the United States Fillippine commission, said today that it was an undetermined question where the government ought to draw the line in localities where the presence of the friars may tend to cause unrest and disturbance. The attempt of Buencamino and his conferees about Tondo to organize an evangelical church was precipitated by arrests, made on the information of priests of certain alleged supporters of the insurrection. The question of the cases of some of them is pending.

There is much speculation as to the extent to which Buencamino will be able to control religious sentiment in his ward, in which reside the poorest class of natives.

Little interest in the mater is apparent in the Binondo and neighboring wards.

Dr. Bourns, the only American on the federal directorate, says the evangelical movement was originated by political leaders at Tondo and was disapproved of by the party directors.

The American soldiers and civilians deprecate the attempts to mix religious agitations with the peace reforms which the federal party has fathered and extended. While the religious belief of the Filipinos is apparently sincere, it is impossible to predict to what extent it may be swayed by their leaders and by Protestant missionaries. Nothing has yet been accomplished in the line of wholesale conversions to Protestantism in Manila. Buencamino is erecting the frame work of an evangelical organization and hopes shortly to gather a big membership.

Forty sailors from the United States cruiser Albany, convicted of mutiny while the warship was in dock at Hong Kong, have been sentenced to various terms of imprisonment at Cavite.

The only cause for their conduct is said to be restlessness and dissatisfaction.

The armored cruiser Brooklyn goes to Hong Kong tomorrow to undergo minor repairs.

WANT SPOONER BILL PASSED.

Washington, Jan. 30.—Neither the state department nor the German embassy so far has received any communication from the German government urging the enactment of the Spooner Philippine resolution, as indicated in the latest Manila advices. But the government here is fully acquainted with the earnest desire of foreign capitalists, not only German, but British, to begin immediately the investment of large sums of money in the development of the Philippines as soon as that can be done safely.

The Philippine commission, through Judge Taft, has reported that its inability to confer any sort of a permanent franchise has paralyzed the development of the archipelago.

The reported pressure from German financial interests were fully expected.

THE MABINI CASE.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The war department is collecting data in regard to the case of Mabini, the Filipino insurgent leader, in order to answer the resolution adopted by the senate at the instance of Senator Pettigrew, calling for the facts in the case. It appears from his official record that Mabini was captured by General Lawton in one of the famous raids in southern Luzon and was sent to Manila as a prisoner of war. He was granted a parole and it is said violated his oath by going back among his people and inciting them to sedition and rebellion against the authority of the United States. For this he was again placed in confinement.

Recently, to limit his activities, General MacArthur changed his place of confinement from Manila to the Island of Guam, where he will be held as a military prisoner of war.

Although a cripple and in poor physical health, he is undoubtedly one of the strongest and one of the most formidable opponents of American sovereignty in the Philippines, by reason of his superior intellectual attainments. The report of the secretary of war on this case will be forwarded to the senate in a few days.

NOT TO RELIEVE M'ARTHUR.

Washington, Jan. 30.—It is stated at the war department that neither of the general officers detailed yesterday, Wade and Ludlow, are sent to Manila with a purpose of relieving General MacArthur. There has been no attempt to forecast the promotions in the regular army which will result from the passage of the pending army reorganization bill. When that bill becomes a law it will be entirely within the power of the president to designate the order in which the commissions shall be issued to the major generals created thereby.

CONDEMN NATION METHODS

CAMBRIDGE (MASS.) W. C. T. U. ADOPTS RESOLUTIONS.

New Jersey Preacher Applauds the Crusader and Kansas Women Will Give Medal.

Cambridge, Mass., Jan. 30.—The Cambridgeport Woman's Christian Temperance union has unanimously adopted resolutions in condemnation of Mrs. Nation's methods. The resolutions say:

"We feel that Mrs. Carrie Nation and others have strayed far from the paths of the pioneers of the work, and have desecrated the badge of our allegiance, which stands for purity and peace, white as our Christian thought and pure as teachings of him whom we serve."

APPLAUDS MRS. NATION.

Vineland, N. J., Jan. 30.—Rev. E. Ward Gamble, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church here, indorsed and applauded the drastic methods adopted by Mrs. Carrie Nation in her crusade against the saloons of Kansas in his discourse before a large number of the most prominent women of Vineland last night. Dr. Gamble even advised the women of this city to emulate Mrs. Nation's example and smash all the unlicensed saloons and "speakeasies" in Vineland, if the authorities fail to do it. Dr. Gamble took the ground that, as the laws of Kansas prohibit saloons, this woman has the example of Christ as a precedent in what she is doing, and that the principle is identical. Dr. Gamble was prepared for the bar before entering the ministry.

"BRAVEST WOMAN IN KANSAS."

Topeka, Kas., Jan. 30.—Mrs. Nation made no attacks upon the Topeka "joints" yesterday, but paid a visit to the inmates of the county jail, to whom she distributed bananas and oranges, and she made a short speech to them on the certain punishment that follows every form of vice. There are twenty-seven prisoners in the jail. To each one she propounded the question, "Did whisky bring you here?" and twenty-five answered "yes." During the afternoon Mrs. Nation attended a meeting of the state temperance union, but took no part in the proceedings. It was proposed at this meeting to take up a collection to buy a medal for Mrs. Nation, bearing on it the words "The bravest woman in Kansas." The delegates promptly responded with $117 for that purpose. A resolution was introduced in the lower house of the legislature inviting Mrs. Carrie Nation to address that body and naming an hour for her to speak. The resolution was laid on the table. Mrs. Nation said she would remain in Topeka until every one of the 120 saloons are closed. "I will petition the governor every day," she said. "I will see the legislature; I will talk, and talk, and talk. I will use all the influence I can, and if this does not suffice—well, there are other means." Mrs. Nation called upon the sheriff, the city attorney and the probate judge and urged each to enforce the law against saloons.

DUKE OF YORK ILL

WILL NOT BE ABLE TO ATTEND FUNERAL OF QUEEN.

CONDITION IS NOT SERIOUS

KING CHARLES OF PORTUGAL REACHES LONDON.

FUNERAL AGAIN REHEARSED

WARSHIPS ARE ASSEMBLING FOR NAVAL ESCORT.

Cowes, Isle of Wight, Jan. 30.—An official bulletin issued today says that the duke of Cornwall and York, who is suffering from German measles, is progressing satisfactorily. It has been finally decided that though the duke of York's condition is not serious, he will be unable to attend the queen's funeral.

FUNERAL PREPARATIONS.

Cowes, Isle of Wight, Jan. 30.—The construction of the mortuary chapel on the quarter deck of the royal yacht Alberta is proceeding apace.

The most elaborate precautions are being taken to prevent any hitch in Friday's arrangements. A company of the queen's guards this morning again rehearsed the military movements in the narrow and tortuous streets, while the bearers experimented with a lead-weighted bier of the same weight as the royal coffin.

The duke of Connaught has already returned here and King Edward is expected at 2:30 this afternoon.

Emperor William and Lord Lonsdale had a long stroll in the grounds of Osborne house this morning.

Cowes itself is very quiet. The streets are practically deserted. The detectives continue the same rigorous precautions which have been observed since the arrival here of Emperor William.

Every steamer or launch arriving on either side of the Medina river is closely scrutinized, while the approaches to Osborne house are as effectually guarded as ever, though the authorities deprecate the idea that they have any particular apprehension of the presence of undesirable foreigners.

The deputy governor has ordered all business places on the island to be closed from 12 o'clock to 4 p. m. Friday.

Emperor William and the duke of Connaught will sleep on board the imperial yacht Hohenzollern Friday night, while King Edward, Queen Alexandria and other members of the royal family be distributed on board the royal yachts Osborne and Victoria and Albert.

ROYALTY AT WINDSOR.

Windsor, Jan. 30.—Several of the younger members of the royal family will arrive here this evening and go to the castle for the funeral.

Rehearsals of the distinctive features of the obsequies are recurring constantly. Practically the whole of the royal borough will be draped in mourning, whereas, elsewhere, only the route of the procession will be thus marked.

Enormous numbers of floral emblems, from the six-foot cross of royalty to the tiny tributes of local cottagers, are pouring in and being hung in the chapel. Only the wreaths of the royal family will be deposited round the catafalque.

TRIBUTE TO DEAD QUEEN.

London, Jan. 30.—Lord Roseberry presided at a special meeting today of the Royal Scotch corporation, called in London to pass resolutions expressing sorrow at the death of Queen Victoria and of congratulations on the accession of King Edward VII.

There was a crowded attendance. Nearly all the Scotch lords were present. Lord Roseberry, remarking that he would pass lightly over the congratulatory part of the program, said his majesty's speech at the privy council meeting sufficiently indicated the laws by which he intended his reign should be governed, thus promising to make his rule no less illustrious than that of his parent.

Lord Roseberry then dwelt in eloquent terms on the life and death of Queen Victoria, saying that in the whole history of mankind no death had touched such a large number of persons in the entire world.

NO STATE RECOGNITION.

New York, Jan. 30.—A special to the Herald from Ottawa, Ont., says: The services to be held in the Church of England Cathedral Saturday in memory of Queen Victoria are not to be dignified by state recognition.

This fact will not distract from the impressiveness of the service, the imposing character of the civil and military pageant or the sincerity of popular mourning; but that on the eve of such an occasion the government should decide to withdraw official recognition of ceremonies intended to mark the nation's sorrow for the dead queen is nevertheless regarded as surprising.

The facts of the difference between the governor general and his advisors, which has led to this result, cannot be learned from official sources, but the trouble appears to have been caused by a determination on the part of the government not to recognize the cathedral services officially, lest it be construed as acknowledging a "state" church in Canada.

KING CHARLES IN LONDON.

London, Jan. 30.—King Charles of Portugal with large suite and who was accompanied from Dover by the Portuguese minister, Senhor Pinto De Soural, and his staff, reached Victoria station at noon today from Dover. King Charles was met on the platform of the station by Prince Christian of Schelswig-Hol-

NEELY ARRIVES IN HAVANA

ALLEGED EMBEZZLER IS A CUBAN PRISONER.

Is in Good Spirits and Confident of Acquittal—Has Talk With His Counsel.

Havana, Jan. 30.—Charles F. W. Neely, the former chief of the bureau of finance of the Cuban postoffice department, who was arrested at Rochester, N. Y., in May last, charged with embezzling $36,000 of the department funds, has arrived here on the steamer Mexico, from New York January 27.

Capt. Lucien Young, captain of the boat, took charge of the prisoner and delivered him to the keeper of the carcel.

Lawyer Viondi, Neely's counsel, had a long talk with the prisoner. The latter, who is in good spirits, received many visitors and talked confidently of his acquittal.

FEAR LABOR AGITATORS.

Victoria, B. C., Jan. 30.—A series of meetings is being held by the canners of the Fraser and northern British Columbia rivers to perfect a combine for the coming season and also to provide protection for the canners from the labor agitators, who succeeded in keeping the fishermen from working while the big run of fish was on last year. Every canner of the Fraser will probably go into the pool. The fishermen are also active in this direction and have formed five unions on the different rivers, including in their membership Indians as well as white fishermen. A central authority is to be appointed to act as the representative of the unions in dealing with the combine. An effort is being made to keep the Japanese, who broke up last year's strike, off the river.

SAVES SON FROM KIDNAPER.

Belleville, Ill., Jan. 30.—In return for board and employment when he was hungry and without work, a tramp giving his name at Bert Williams yesterday kidnaped Willie, the 7-year-old son of William Kinsella, a farmer of Caseyville township. Kinsella looked out of the house in time to see Williams and the boy walking rapidly across the prairie, two miles distant, toward the timber. The farmer mounted a horse and gave pursuit. Williams released the boy and fled into the woods. Kinsella was unarmed and abandoned pursuit. Posses are now searching for Williams. Recently Mrs. Kinsella came into possession of a legacy of $2,000. The theory is that Williams was acquainted with this fact and planned to kidnap the boy in order to obtain this money.

WILL RESUME SOCIAL LIFE.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The president has decided to resume his official dinner parties, being justified in so doing by the improvement in his health. It is thought that the annual dinner to the diplomatic body will be the first in order and that this will take place February 14. The formal invitations have not been extended, nor will they be before the memorial service in honor of the late queen next Saturday.

A NEW RICHMOND

MRS. NATION OUTDONE BY MRS. SHERIFF.

WRECK ANTHONY (KAS.) JOINTS

TWELVE W. C. T. U. WOMEN IN THE RAID.

ONE PROPRIETOR LAID OUT

WAS STRUCK OVER THE HEAD WITH BEER BOTTLE.

Anthony, Kas., Jan. 30.—Twelve women of the W. C. T. U., armed with pick axes, hatchets and hammers, today raided and completely demolished four saloons, known as "joints."

During the early hours of the morning, before many citizens had reached their places of business, twelve members of the local branch of the W. C. T. U. marched quietly down the principal street of the town. They carried a miscellaneous collection of axes, hatchets, etc. Several of the women were accompanied by their husbands, who, however, took no part in the proceedings, and acted only as a sort of a bodyguard.

INVADED A DRUG STORE.

It was observed by those on the streets that the party was headed for a so-called "joint," and a good-sized crowd soon collected. In the rear of a drug store was situated the first point of attack.

Entrance was effected through a back door. The place contained costly bar fixtures and quite a stock of liquors.

The fixtures and cash register were demolished, but the bulk of the liquor was stored out of sight and escaped destruction.

A WRECK OF MATTER.

Half a block further on the second scene of the crusade was enacted. The door was locked, but entrance was quickly made with an ax. While part of the women gave their attention to the door, others reduced the plate glass front to powder. Back of the bar was a heavy plate mirror. This, as well as everything else in sight, was destroyed. The proprietor of the place entered when the smashing was at its height. He attempted to stop the work and came into collision with the husband bodyguard.

PROPRIETOR LAID OUT.

A blow on the head with a beer bottle quickly rendered the irate proprietor hors de combat, blood from a deep cut in his scalp mixing with the liquor which flowed in streams over the floor.

Two more "joints" were visited in quick succession. Their furniture was demolished and the stocks of liquor were emptied into the gutters.

Complete as the work of destruction apparently had been, it was stated that plenty of the prohibited liquids had been stored away in safe places, in anticipation of just such raids; that the "jointists" were chiefly concerned over the destruction of their fixtures, valued at several thousand dollars.

After the work of demolition was completed the crusaders held a prayer meeting on the sidewalk and "Nearer My God to Thee" was sung with great fervor.

A NEW RICHMOND.

A Mrs. Sheriff, of Danville, a village near by, was the leader in today's raid. She came to Albany last night, quietly organized the local temperance women and planned the crusade. Several members of the band were mere school girls, who, however, took a leading part in the work. Mrs. Sheriff, the leader, previously had destroyed the fixtures of a saloon at Danville and is credited, locally, with having given Mrs. Nation, who achieved widespread reputation in the matter, her first idea of a wrecking crusade against intemperance.

PUGILIST ACQUITTED.

Easton, Pa., Jan. 30.—"Paddy" Donovan, the Philadelphia pugilist, who has been on trial for several days at Belvidere, N. J., on the charge of manslaughter in causing the death of Frank Welch, another Philadelphia pugilist, during an exhibition fight at Philippsburg, N. J., on New Year's eve, was acquitted today. The jury was out but a short time. Physicians during the trial testified to finding a clot of blood at the base of Welch's brain and said that his death, which resulted several days after the fight, was due to that cause.

TABLED IN HOUSE

WOMAN'S PRISON RESOLUTION PUT TO SLEEP.

HOUSE WANTS NO INQUIRY

THE SENATE LIKELY TO TAKE DIFFERENT ACTION.

STILLWELL IS PERSISTENT

AGAIN PRESENTS KENTUCKY FUGITIVE RESOLUTION.

[Special to The Sentinel.]

Indianapolis, Jan. 30.—The resolutions introduced in the house providing for investigation of charges of cruelty and other alleged scandals in the woman's prison, were tabled by the house today. Senator Agnew will introduce similar resolutions in the senate this afternoon and it is thought more than probable that they will be adopted.

Senator Stilwell, who yesterday introduced resolutions calling on the governor to honor any requisition for the return of the Kentucky fugitives got in his resolutions again today, though they were yesterday declared out of order by Lieutenant Governor Gilbert. It is likely that Senator Stilwell's resolutions will be made a special order for debate in the senate next week.

The house today killed the amendment to the election law providing for punishment of vote-buyers as well as vote-sellers.

PRIMARY ELECTION BILL.

The legislature has progressed sufficiently in its work to attract a great many onlookers. Many visitors attended the sessions held yesterday. Both branches held morning and afternoon sessions, adjourning early enough to permit the committees to dispose of matters set down for hearing. Perhaps the most important event of the different sessions yesterday was the consideration of the primary election bill in the house.

The bill was advanced to second reading, and after being amended in various ways it was ordered engrossed. The consideration of the bill had been made a special order of business for the afternoon. Although the most of the amendments that were made to the bill came from the democratic side of the house, it did not appear that politics cut much figure in the case. The argument over the measure developed a smart opposition from different quarters, and, as finally amended, the bill, if it becomes a law, will only apply to Marion county and the city of Indianapolis. Other cities and towns may have the law if they decide that they want it by voting for it at the first election after the measure becomes operative.

ATTEMPT TO KILL BILL.

Mr. Louttit moved that the enacting clause be stricken out, thus killing the bill. In speaking to his amendment Mr. Louttit said the law would deprive the people of the free right of suffrage and that the bill should die. Mr. James said the gentleman from Allen should amend the bill to suit his wishes and not kill it. He moved the motion to strike out the enacting clause be tabled. The motion carried by a vote of 60 to 27.

To Representative Davis, of Greene county, belongs the honor of having amended the bill so as to make it compulsory only in Marion county. When the bill comes up again it will be on third reading and on its passage. There still appears to be doubt among members as to the final success of the bill, even in its amended form.

In the senate one of the important matters to occupy the attention of the members was the introduction of a number of new bills and a favorable report of the committee on Senator Agnew's anti-trust bill. The bill reappropriating $31,000 for the completion of the soldiers' and sailors' monument was passed under a suspension of rules, the committee on finance reporting favorably on the measure.

THREE BILLS KILLED.

At a meeting of the house elections committee yesterday evening, the three bills before the committee relating to illegal vote getting, were indefinitely postponed. At least the majority will report against the bills, but there probably will be minority reports in each instance. One of the bills was introduced by Mr. Roberts, of Dearborn county, and provided for the punishment by imprisonment of the man who buys a vote. Mr. Slack's bill was to punish both buyer and seller, and Mr. McCarty's related to the intimidation of employes by employers. The majority of the committee is not disposed to interfere with the Caraway law, which is intended to have a salutary effect on the custom of vote getting at least.

AN EXECUTIVE MANSION

Messrs. King, Whitcomb and James, of the ways and means committee of the house, and two members of the senate finance committee, met yesterday afternoon to discuss the bill introduced by Representative Scifers providing for the erection of a governor's residence in this city.

The committee favorably considered the bill and referred it to the ways and means committee of the house and the finance committee of the senate, with the recommendation that the bill provide for the erection of the contemplated residence in St. Clair park, which is state property. The bill provides for an appropriation of $75,000 to carry out its provisions.

AN EPILEPTIC VILLAGE.

The committee on benevolent and scientific institutions of the house met yesterday after the house adjourned and decided to report Mr. Cox's bill providing for a village for epileptics, favorably. Mr. Cox's measure provided that the village should be located within six miles of the city of Columbus, but the committee will suggest that this part of the bill be stricken out. The members—six of them at least—are opposed to fixing a place for the village. The legislature may do this if it desires. The bill fixes an appropriation of $200,000 with which to purchase 1,000 acres of land at $40 an acre and erect suitable buildings.

WAS NO WARNING OF DEATH

MRS. PAULINE PELZ EXPIRED SUDDENLY.

Husband Returns After Brief Absence and Finds Life Extinct

—Mortuary Matters.

Mrs. Pauline Pelz, wife of August Pelz, residing at 40 Laselle street, died very suddenly from heart trouble shortly after 6 o'clock this morning. Her age was seventy-three years.

For some time Mrs. Pelz had been under a physician's care, but when the husband arose this morning, leaving his wife still in bed, there was no indication of immediate danger. Mr. Pelz returned in an hour, only to find that she had died during his brief absence from the room. Physicians who were at once summoned pronounced the cause of death to be heart failure.

Mrs. Pelz was a native of Germany and had been a resident of Fort Wayne about forty years. She was married twice, first to a gentleman of the name of Kirchner. Surviving are the present husband, August Pelz, an employe of the Pennsylvania shops, and four children, as follows: Albert, Gertie and P. A. Kirchner and Mrs. C. Groves. The deceased was a devoted member of St. Peter's Catholic church.

Funeral services will be held Friday morning at 8:30 from the residence and at 9 o'clock from St. Peter's Catholic church.

SCHOWE.

Sophie Schowe, an aged lady who resided with her adopted daughter, Mrs. Jacob Bill, at 285 East Creighton avenue, died about 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from the infirmities of age. She was seventy-seven years of age.

The funeral services will probably be held Friday afternoon from St. John's Reformed church.

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Hildebrand—Funeral services of Mrs. Fredericka Hildebrand will be held at noon Friday from the residence, in Marion township, and at 1 o'clock from the Lutheran church at Soest.

THE ASPHALT WAR.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The reported disorders in Venezuela involving American asphalt interests have not come to the attention of the state department. Minister Loomis has acquainted the department with the fact that the Venezuelan government is willing and anxious to have the merits of the rival asphalt concessions left to the determination of the Venezuelan courts. The state department has decided that this is the proper course to pursue, and has so informed the minister. It is true there has been no lack of insinuations touching the integrity of the Venezuelan judicial tribunals, but the state department does not feel itself absolved on that score from following the well established practice in such cases and refraining from intervention until it shall become absolutely evident that there has been a denial of justice. Therefore the asphalt companies must make their fight before the Venezuelan courts to begin with at least.

Attorney Charles E. Emmanuel, of Auburn, is in the city.

A REVELATION

TROOPS MUTINIED

SERIOUS OUTBREAK ON THE ISLAND OF ST. HELENA.

THE INDIAN SOLDIERS REVOLT

TERRORIZED THE TOWN AND INJURED MANY.

QUELLED BY LOADED GUNS

MUTINOUS TROOPS GUARDED BOER PRISONERS.

London, Jan. 30.—The West Indian troops stationed at the Island of St. Helena, where General Cronje and a large number of Boers are held prisoners, mutined January 2, raided the town, terrorized the inhabitants, injured many of them, defied their officers and were only finally subdued when faced by the muzzles of rifles.

The censor suppressed the news, but the Associated Press has received the story by mail.

The trouble began with a row on the night of January 1 between some blue jackets and a party of West Indians. On the following night the West Indians broke out of barracks and sallied the town with clubs and razors tied to sticks. They ran amuck, cutting and beating women, children and men indiscriminately, and attacked the Sailors' Rest, tearing out the doors and windows.

All the efforts of the officers to suppress the mutiny were futile. When ordered to the camp they refused to obey and threatened to dynamite the town.

A strong naval force was landed, the available troops were collected, and the streets were paraded and guarded all night long. At daybreak the troops were drawn up with loaded rifles in front of the place where the West Indians were barricaded. The latter were ordered to surrender and were notified that if they did not do so they would be fired upon.

The mutineers were finally cowed and were taken to the camp, where they will remain under guard until a troopship arrives to remove them.

DE WET AND KNOX FIGHT.

London, Jan. 30.—Lord Kitchener reports to the war office under date of Pretoria, January 29, as follows:

"DeWet has been engaged by Knox forty miles north of Thabanchu. No details. DeWet intends again attempting an invasion of Cape Colony.

"Smith-Dorrien has returned from Carolina, having dispersed the Boers.

"A force of Boers this morning entered Boysburg and damaged two mines. Commandant Marais is among the prisoners taken."

MAY SEND BOERS TO INDIA.

Calcutta, Jan. 30.—It is reported that Lord Kitchener wishes to send 10,000 Boer prisoners to India. He proposes to locate them in the state of Nilgiris, province of Orissa, Bengal.

INTERESTING SNOW RACES.

Yesterday afternoon the Amateur Driving club members got out their fast steppers and did a little sprinting on West Washington street. They obtained permission to race on the street for a distance of a quarter of a mile, and after placing watchmen at all the street crossings to prevent accidents, the fun commenced. There was nothing formal about the races and was a go-as-you-please all around. The footing was not very good, but at that some very good speed was developed. Today there will be another brush and a little more method will be observed. There will be starters and time-keepers, judges, etc., and a delightful time is anticipated. As yesterday, the crossings will be watched and accidents will be practically impossible. The sport will continue from 1:30 to 3:30. Among the high steppers which will be seen will be W. M. McKinnie, with John M.; Charles MacDougall, with Harry C.; Frank Gruber, with Red Elgin; Charles Gruber, with White Wonder; James O'Ryan, with Bessie O.; Tom Doyle, with Annie D., and Charles Pidgeon, with his little pacing mare.

WILL ATTEND MEMORIAL.

Washington, Jan. 30.—President McKinley and all of the cabinet members will attend the memorial services of Queen Victoria to be held at St. John's Protestant Episcopal church next Saturday morning. The program as now arranged will be carried out unless something unforeseen should occur to prevent.

THE NEWS IN POLICE CIRCLES

RAID MADE ON A GAMBLING RESORT.

Several Sports Put Up Bail Which is Forfeited in Police Court

—Police Notes.

Police court drew a blank this morning as far as personal attendance was concerned, although four industrious gentlemen were represented by an envelope each containing from $16 to $21. The police last evening visited the rooms over Eckle's saloon on Calhoun street and discovered four gentlemen engaged in the engrossing pastime of playing poker. They gave fictitious names and put up cash forfeit for their appearance. They all defaulted and made their contribution to the school fund.

The case against John F. Peters for assaulting Esea Sahlemy, the Assyrian, last Saturday evening and cutting slits in him with a bread knife, is on trial in the mayor's court this afternoon.

A horse and sleigh without a driver was found on the street at the corner of Main and Fulton streets last evening. The outfit was taken care of and subsequently returned to the owner, a Mr. F. Taylor, living on South Wayne avenue.

Frank Quinn, a messenger employed by the Western Union company, reported the theft of his bicycle last night. It was an Imperial wheel, No. 140,259, and bore a city license tag No. 6204. The police are endeavoring to locate the vehicle.

The whereabouts of Tony Malone, formerly employed on the intercepting sewer is wanted by his father at Chicago.

A report was made last night that burglars had made an effort to enter the house at 351 East Wayne street. The officers investigated but found no traces of any burglars nor any traces of an attempt at burglary.

Superintendent Gorsline has received additional photographs of Pat Crowe, the Omaha kidnapper, together with a notification of an increase in the reward for his capture. The rewards now offered aggregate $50,000, the largest amount ever offered in this country for the capture of a single individual. Detective Coling says he feels just as though he had the money in his pocket.

Complaint was made in a morning paper of the existence of places of bad repute on Columbia street. A citizen stated that he had occasion to visit a saloon on the street yesterday and found women of bad repute in various stages of intoxication loitering about the barrooms. Superintendent Gorsline called Detective Coling and instructed him to visit all places on the street and if he found women loitering to notify them that they must seek other quarters or be arrested. He added that he would personally notify all saloon keepers on the street that they would be arrested every time women were found loitering in their places and that for three offenses their licenses would be revoked by the mayor. The evil was suppressed once before, but after awhile the practice was resumed and has again become obnoxious.

PERUNA'S WORK.

MR. AND MRS. KINSEY, OF ELK, MICHIGAN.

Mrs. Margaret Kinsey, Elk, Genesee county, Mich., writes to Dr. Hartman, as follows:

"I am well and think I will need no more medicine. I feel so well, and all my old complaints are gone, which were many. I often did not know which way to turn. No one knew what I suffered. For forty-nine years I suffered but now I am cured, for which I thank Dr. Hartman for his advice and good treatment. I keep Peruna in the house all the time and shall never be without it.

"My husband had a cough for nine years. He took Peruna and it helped him. He looks quite young. He works hard every day and is getting fat. He takes Peruna three times a day. You don't know how thankful I feel toward you; I never think of you but to thank you and will do all I can for you."

Congressman J. H. Bankhead, of Alabama, one of the most influential members of the House of Representatives, in a letter written from Washington, D. C., gives his endorsement to the great catarrh remedy, Peruna, in the following words: "Your Peruna is one of the best medicines I ever tried, and no family should be without your remarkable remedy. As a tonic and a catarrh cure I know of nothing better."

Hon. J. H. Bankhead.

There is but a single medicine which is a radical specific for catarrh. It is Peruna, which has stood a half century test. It has cured thousands of cases of catarrh. Ninety times in a hundred, those who have been cured of catarrh by Peruna thought they had some other disease."

The remedy to cure catarrh must be able to reach the mucous membranes, and this is exactly what Peruna does. Peruna operates at the fountain head. Peruna produces normal, clean and vigorous mucous membranes. Catarrh cannot remain in the system if Peruna is used according to directions.

Address The Peruna Medicine Company, Columbus, Ohio, for a free book on catarrh.

Not a Bald-head

"I had a very severe sickness that took off all my hair. I purchased a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor and am glad to say that it brought my hair back again and I am not today obliged to be classed among the bald-heads."—W. D. QUINN, Marseilles, Ill., Aug. 25, 1899.

One thing is certain,—Ayer's Hair Vigor feeds the hair and it grows. It could not do differently, for it's Nature's plan. It stops falling of the hair, too, and always restores color to gray hair.

WILL BE HARD ON LOVERS.

If a marriage bill introduced in the Colorado legislature becomes a law that wooly western state will be a mighty poor refuge for love-sick swains and weddings will be a luxury that will have to be well paid for in advance. The bill was introduced by Speaker Montgomery, of the house, and it does almost everything except declare marriage a crime. It provides for a board of medical examiners, to sit ten days a month, to pass upon the physical qualifications of candidates for matrimony. If either of the parties is of a family tainted with tuberculosis, dipsomania, or any of the long list of other diseases that party is to be forbidden to marry. The examination is to cost $15. If both parties are physically fit they must advertise their engagement for ten days in one newspaper of general circulation. If in that time no one should come forward to object to the marriage then by paying $10 more the couple may secure a marriage license. Mr. Montgomery is 66 years old, a widower, and has one son.

ARCHITECT'S FOOD.

Grape-Nuts Turned Into Big Buildings.

The duties of an architect are so multitudinous, looking after the thousand and one details required in the construction of large buildings, that many of them suffer from the constant mental applications and require the best of food to keep up their work. The chief draughtsman in the office of R. T. Newberry, Architect, at 1227 New York Life Bldg., Chicago, by name, Henry C. Hengels, says:

"After nine months' constant application in the preparation of the necessary plans and details for the large hotel known as the Post Tavern and the Post building, at Battle Creek, as well as several other large institutions, I found myself in a very debilitated and dyspeptic condition and unfit for work.

"Instead of medical treatment, I used Grape-Nuts Food in place of the usual breakfast cereals. The first few days gave great encouragement, and after a week's use, quite an appreciable improvement manifested itself. Since then, daily use has entirely restored the digestive functions to their natural healthy condition, and I have gained about one pound per week. I am now entirely well and strong again and am able to apply myself to work with more than usual vigor. I consider Grape-Nuts a most valuable food for all brain workers. The help this food has given me is incalculable."

DEMOCRATIC AUTHORITY.

Editor Sentinel:—This is what the Lafayette Daily Journal, the democratic organ of Tippecanoe county, has to say of Mr. Max Pottlitzer and the metropolitan police law:

"In calling Mr. Max Pottlitzer to a second term as police commissioner for the city of Lafayette, Governor Durbin has made a wise selection. Mr. Pottlitzer is by no means a noisy partisan, but he is a democrat, and as the democratic member of the board has discharged every obligation which his party could fairly hold against him. But there is a better word than that to say of Mr. Pottlitzer. The office is a part of what is, at least in theory, a non-partisan body. The chief duty of the police commissioners, under the metropolitan system, is to give the people of the city a good police force; to preserve order; to enforce law; to make safe and secure the lives and the property of the people. In this we are sure that Mr. Pottlizer has done his full share with the other two members of the board. And the fact that the Lafayette police force is regarded as a model throughout the west is proof sufficient that the work has been well done."

Fort Wayne citizens should carefully note what this democratic paper says is "the chief duty of the police commissioners under the metropolitan system." Fair Play.

WITH OFFICES AT HUNTINGTON.

The officers of the Southwestern railway company are looking about for a suitable location to build a power house at Huntington. Speaking of that and other business connected with the road, the Huntington News-Democrat says: "Mr. Moran says the boilers have been ordered and an immense wheel is included in the equipment. Twelve new cars, each forty-nine feet long, have been ordered and when equipped will in every way be complete. Mr. Moran is quite confident Huntington will be made the home office of the road and the power house. He is also delighted with the progress made on the construction of bridges between this city and Fort Wayne."

The charge of Senator Rawlins, of Utah, that the election of the new senator in his state was accomplished under a deal between the national republican leaders and the heads of the Mormon church, by which the Mormons were promised immunity for the practice of polygamy, should not be left unanswered. The party which refused to admit the polygamist Roberts to congress cannot afford to rest under such an imputation.

Before the time shall come—on May 1—to fix the wage scale in the anthracite region for the ensuing season or year it is possible that another general strike will occur over the continued determination of the allied trust and outside operators not to recognize the National Mine Workers' union in any arrangements made with the labor element at the mines. The union, on the other hand, feeling strong and being well organized, is at present equally bent on forcing recognition. It is understood that a demand for a 10 per cent advance over the wages agreed upon last autumn is about to be made by the anthracite workers.

LET JUDGE TAYLOR STAY.

The regular quadrennial fight on Judge Robert S. Taylor, of this city, as a member of the Mississippi river commission is breaking out again. Joseph B. Kealing, of Indianapolis, longs for the place and there will be set at work political influences sufficiently powerful to menace Judge Taylor's retention on the commission. Mr. Kealing's sole claim to such distinguished preferment is that he wants the place and is a republican politician—a politician in the professional sense of the term. There is and there can be no contention of his special fitness for the place any more than there can be any contention of Judge Taylor's unfitness for the place. Probably the most that Mr. Kealing knows of the Mississippi river is that it has its source in the spring lakes of Minnesota, follows a devious southerly course and pours its mighty flood into the great southern gulf. Judge Taylor probably knows the great river better than any man in the country. For many years he has been a member of the Mississippi river commission and the value of his services may be understood from the fact that the most strenuous advocates of his retention on the commission have been the senators and representatives in congress from those states bordering the river. This is true of those states along the southern course of the river wher there are to be consulted the needs of a great commerce as well as the safety of towns, the protection of great agricultural areas and the security of life. These states are democratic and are represented in congress by democrats, but politics has never figured in their view of the work performed by Judge Taylor on the river commission. Intelligent, scientific and conscientious in the discharge of his duties, Judge Taylor has made his office one that renders important service to the Mississippi river interests. Joe Kealing has in mind its $3,000 salary, its possibilities for a species of elegant loafing and occasional triumphant junkets, with nothing to do but pose impressively and bear himself with the air of all wisdom. To displace Judge Taylor with Joe Kealing will be simply to strip a useful and important office of a good investiture to clothe it in unclean garments.

WHY AND HOW.

Fort Wayne needs the auditorium that is the object of the present agitation, because Fort Wayne has no auditorium. It is not highly creditable to this city of 50,000 inhabitants that is without possession of a suitable place of assembly for large gatherings. The design of the citizens now promoting the auditorium project is to correct that short-coming of this otherwise good city. A place is wanted where great political meetings may be held; where conventions may meet; where high class concerts, lectures, musical festivals and like entertainments may be given at prices so low the poorest may not be denied a share in such pleasures; where industrial displays, stock shows, agricultural fairs and such expositions may be given creditably; where, in short, anything and everything of popular kind that cannot properly or conveniently be given outdoors, may be presented. It will take considerable money to erect such an auditorium. A big barren shed could be built for a few thousands of dollars. But Fort Wayne does not want a shed. A building architecturally ornamental and in good taste and perfectly appointed for all purposes is wanted.

If all the people of Fort Wayne could be brought to think alike upon the auditorium question the enterprise would be almost as good as accomplished. If you are right upon this proposition and full of that lively interest in it that ought to be the sentiment of every one in Fort Wayne, you can do the auditorium cause a great deal of good. Convince some one else of his duty to the movement. He in turn will labor with another, and so on. Shortly the entire people will be a unit in supporting the auditorium. Then give to the fund what you can afford. If a dollar be your limit, then let it be a dollar. If you can give more, so much the better. If all the persons in Fort Wayne who can afford to subscribe for from one dollar to five dollars of auditorium stock would do so, the balance would not be difficult to raise among those able to give more. Resolve to do the best you can in the way of subscription and follow this lofty intention with some effective missionary work among those you know best. It will make you a distinct benefactor to the city you live in.

So much has been published recently about the income of the ruler of Great Britain that it is interesting to note that the annual grant allowed by parliament is not large, as such things go in monarchial countries. Indeed it is $500,000 less than the income of the Shah of Persia, $1,000,000 less than that of the King of Italy, about $2,000,000 less than that of the Emperor of Germany and $2,500,000 less than that of the Emperor of Austria-Hungary. Yet it should suffice. The president of the United States, who has vastly greater responsibilities and work along with his vastly greater power, receives $1,825,000 less per year than the monarch of Great Britain.

HELD BY THE YAQUIS.

Tucson, Ariz., Jan. 30.—It is reported that La Cuna, a mining camp in Sonora, was held for three days by a band of Yaqui Indians and the people of the camp were at the mercy of the Indians. It seems a large number of Yaquis who are employed at the camp got drunk when paid and purchased all the mescal in camp. The Mexican police were driven from the camp and held outside by a number of Yaquis. Their guns were taken from them and the Americans who attempted to interfere were disarmed. The Indians held high carnival for three days and ran the camp to suit themselves. There were a number of serious cutting affrays, but no one was killed. The Americans set about to quiet the Indians and sober them, and with the assistance of Mexican cavalrymen finally were successful.

GIRL'S COMB EXPLODES.

Beresford, S. D., Jan. 30.—A peculiar accident happened here Sunday in the morning service at St. Mary's Catholic church. Miss Nona Ryan, a young woman about nineteen years of age, sat near and with her back toward the stove, when an explosion took place in her hair, which was wadded upon the back of her head, and immediately her whole head was enveloped in flame. John L. Reedy and Robert O'Reilley tried in vain to extinguish the flames, but found it necessary to cut the hair from her head with a jackknife, the only accessible instrument. The girl will recover. The cause of the explosion was found to be an overheated celluloid comb, which ignited from the heat of the stove.

ELOPES AS AN ACCOMMODATION

Princeton, Ky., Jan. 30.—James Ralston, a farm hand, planned to elope with Bessie Williamson, eighteen, Monday night. He confided his secret to Frank Hope, a friend, who promised to give every assistance necessary. After the two started for the home of the young lady Ralston confessed he would gladly back out if it was possible. After a talk Hope decided to try to help his friend, and, with the girl's consent, took Ralston's place and eloped with her. They went to Cairo, Ill., where they were married.

NINE LOSE VOTES

RAPID DISFRANCHISEMENT OF VOTE SELLERS.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY CASES

A CASE OF REAL IGNORANCE BROUGHT TO LIGHT.

HAPPENINGS IN HOOSIERDOM

GENERAL NEWS OF THE STATE OF INDIANA.

Crawfordsville, Ind., Jan. 30.—The case against Charles Wells for selling his vote was tried before Judge West yesterday and the court disfranchised him for twenty years. This man is the son of Rufus Wells, who was tried by a jury Monday for the same offense and was disfranchised for nineteen years. Wells testified that he could not distinguish colors, could not tell the time of day, did not know how many pennies it took to make a quarter of a dollar, did not know in what town, township, county or state he lived, could not tell the directions, did not know what a loaf of bread, glass of beer or a ton of coal was worth, could not read or write, and the only thing he did seem to know was that he had always voted the democratic ticket and knew the rooster when he saw it, yet he said that he did not know the difference between the democratic and republican tickets. He said he was 40 years old, although he did not know when or where he was born.

Several men appeared before the judge, and entered a plea of guilty, and were all disfranchised for twelve years each. They were James Endicut, John Rankins, William A. Scott and Stephen Robbins. The case of James Osborne was then called, and he demanded a trial by jury, and the case resulted in his being disfranchized for fifteen years. Charles Bogart then pleaded guilty and was disfranchized for twelve years. William Rogers demanded a trial and was convicted and disfranchised for sixteen years. William Hinton was disfranchised for twelve years on his plea of guilty.

DOCTOR IS IN HIDING.

Terre Haute, Jan. 30.—Dr. M. J. Rodermund, of Appleton, Wis., who smeared smallpox virus over his hands and face to show the disease is not contagious, and who escaped from the quarantine at Appleton, is in hiding in this city, unless he has succeeded in eluding the vigilance of the police, who have watched all the outgoing trains. Max J. Hammel and Robert J. Koffend, of Appleton, students at the Polytechnic institute here, recognized Rodermund on the streets Monday afternoon. The board of health was notified, but the fact was suppressed from the public so as not to defeat detection. Fred D. Blue, secretary of the anti-vaccination society, practically admits that Rodermund called at his house, but adds that he does not know where he is now. The hotel where Rodermund stopped here under a fictitious name has been thoroughly fumigated. Policemen will continue to watch all outgoing trains.

FIXES NATURAL GAS RATES.

Wabash, Ind., Jan. 30.—At a special meeting of the city council yesterday, which was attended by Sam T. Murdock, of the Natural Gas company, the council notified him that, beginning February 1, it would consent to a meter rate for natural gas of twelve cents per 1,000 feet, and no more. The old ordinance provides that the cost of fuel gas shall not exceed two thirds the cost of wood or coal and during this month the company has installed meters to test the quantity of gas consumed. All contracts are to be canceled February 1. Mr. Murdock said the directors would never agree to a twelve-cent rate and long litigation is in prospect.

CHARLES E. YAGER MISSING.

Waterloo, Ind., Jan. 30.—Charles E. Yager, aged 20, son of Rev. S. H. Yager, of this city, has been mysteriously missing for several weeks. He left here early in January to resume his work at Hillsdale college. After reaching the college he told his roommate that he was going away, and he left a portion of his belongings behind. It is said that he was recently in Ohio, where he was representing a theatrical company.

ATTEMPT TO ROB POSTOFFICE.

South Bend, Ind., Jan. 30.—Five or six youthful thieves entered the postoffice and general store at Woodlawn, this county, yesterday morning by breaking a front window. Postmaster Mochel, who resides across the street, heard the noise and he and his clerk armed themselves with shotguns and revolvers. One of the burglars opened fire on them and fired five shots. Mochel returned the fire and filled the face of John Hepler with shot. Hepler was captured, as also was another burglar named Lambart. The others escaped. Hepler is an old offender.

WHITNEY FARM FAKE.

Goshen, Ind., Jan. 30.—The widely-heralded purchase of the B. F. Kitson farm on the north shore of Lake Wawasee by ex-Secretary of the Navy William C. Whitney proves to have been a bold, but unsuccessful, "skin game." A man, who claimed to be the representative of Whitney, working in the interests of Chicago confidence men, sought to interest real estate men in Chicago in the alleged deal by inducing them to purchase the land at a price far in advance of its original cost or real worth for the purpose of transferring it to Mr. Whitney. Of course, the sharpers were to pocket the differences between the actual and the fancy price. This man was at Syracuse several days and had things working nicely, but the fact of a similar fake having been worked at Westville, Ind., and at Wheaton, Ill., coming to the ears of the Chicago real estate men, they dropped the deal summarily. Neither Mr. Kitson nor any of the Syracuse parties interested in the proposed gigantic deal, which was painted as meaning so much for Lake Wawasee and vicinity, lost anything, and no money or other valuable consideration changed hands.

DEMAND $3,000 OF A WIDOW.

South Bend, Ind., Jan. 30.—About ten days ago Mrs. W. W. Dodge, of Mishawaka, widow of the president of the Dodge Manufacturing company, said to be one of the largest pulley factories in the world, received an anonymous letter demanding that on a certain day she place $3,000 at a designated place. The letter, which was illiterate and crude, was vile in language, and threatened her with being blown to atoms in case she refused to place the money as ordered, or if she "squealed" to the officers. Mrs. Dodge at once turned the letter over to the authorities, who are now working on a clew. It is alleged that another wealthy woman of Mishawaka was threatened with death if she did not "give up" a large sum of money, and that she promptly complied with the anonymous demand.

WHERE IS LEWIS TUCKER?

Kokomo, Ind., Jan. 30.—Lewis Tucker, representing himself to be a man of means, lumber dealer and owner of valuable lands and a summer resort at Freeport, Mich., and who has lived in this city for the last three months, became engaged to be married to Miss Estelle Price, a pretty seamstress of this city, and the marriage was to take place Saturday in Kokomo. Miss Price was to receive a deed to 100 acres of land as a wedding present. The family with which Miss Price lived gave her a formal dinner. A few hours before the train left on which Tucker and Miss Price were to leave for Freeport, where they were to be married, Tucker disappeared and has not been seen or heard of since. A number of creditors are anxious to see him.

Try for Health.

Tathan, McDuffie Co., Ga., May 1, 1900.

I was reading your advertisement in the Ladies' Birthday Almanac and saw the wonderful Wine of Cardui prescribed. My health has been so bad for the past two or three years that I decided to try your Wine of Cardui. The first bottle gave me relief and now I am taking another bottle. A friend of mine was so helpless that I recommended it to her, and she is also using it and says it is doing her a world of good. I shall recommend Wine of Cardui and Thedford's Black-Draught in this settlement, as they are wonderful medicines.

MARY A. MOORE.

WINE OF CARDUI

You may be as well as Mary Moore. A million women have found relief in Wine of Cardui. It is a fact that ninety women out of a hundred are sick because they never sincerely try to be well. There never was a case of disordered menstruation, leucorrhœa or falling of the womb Wine of Cardui would not benefit and few it would not cure. Do you not think it wise to rid yourself of those terrible aches in the head, back, arms, legs and abdomen? Why do you not try to be free from menstrual sufferings; from the continual agony of bearing down pains; from the languid suffering of leucorrhœa? Wine of Cardui builds up and regenerates the diseased organs and gives them strength and tone. If you are sick, and discouraged in the fight for health, try Wine of Cardui. It will bring you a quick cure. A $1.00 bottle which you can buy from your druggist means just so much relief—a healthier and stronger body—less discomfort at the menstrual period. You do not have to spend long months "doctoring". Wine of Cardui starts a cure at once. We ask you to try for health before you give it up! You can be well!

DIE IN HOTEL FIRE

JEFFERSON HOTEL BURNED

MANY GUESTS HAD NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

WALKED PLANK TO SAFETY

EDWARD MARSHALL LOST HIS CORK LEG.

New York, Jan. 30.—Two lives were lost at the burning of the Hotel Jefferson, a seven-story building, 102-106 East Fifteenth street, early today.

The damage by fire is estimated at $50,000.

THE CASUALTIES.

The dead are:

Elenora Downing, twenty-five years old, a nurse.

Elizabeth Reynolds, thirty years old, a waitress.

Mrs. Downing was being lowered from a sixth-story window by means of a rope. The rope broke and she fell to the sidewalk, striking on her skull. Miss Reynolds, who was on the seventh floor, was suffocated.

Among those injured were:

John Gallagher, porter; right arm badly burned.

J. Ensign Fuller, feet and arm badly burned.

W. H. Voltz, New Haven, a student on his way to Princeton; hands torn by sliding down rope fire escape.

John Chatfield, proprietor of the hotel; Mrs. Chatfield and her mother, Mrs. F. H. Streator, escaped from the burning building clad only in their night robes.

A THRILLING RESCUE.

J. Ensign Fuller, an elderly man, made a thrilling rescue of his seven-teen-year-old invalid niece, Miss May Upperman.

She was in a back room on the third floor. Through the heat and smoke Mr. Fuller carried her downstairs on his back. His feet were terribly burned and as he reached the open air he staggered and fell with his unconscious charge into the arms of a policeman.

Col. William L. Gildersleeve, attache of the supreme court of New Mexico, was caught on the fourth floor. He tried to make his way to the rear. A plate glass door stopped him. He broke it with his fist and crawled through to safety. His face and hands wer badly cut.

Edward Marshall, who lost one leg as the result of a wound received while serving as a war correspondent in Cuba, occupied a room on the second floor of the Jefferson. When he was aroused the halls were filled with smoke. Not waiting to find his cork leg, Mr. Marshall climbed to the fire escape in the rear of his room, and one story from the ground. There he found that no iron ladder was available to reach safety. Directly in the rear of the Jefferson is Steinway's piano warerooms, with a one-story extension in the rear. Steinway's watchman secured a board, which he placed from the extension roof to the balcony on the bottom of the fire escape and across this board Mr. Marshall and the others who climbed down the fire escape were rescued.

"There were lively times on the fire escape," said Mr. Marshall. "A dozen people were trying to reach the ground and no ladder was in sight of us. I was almost helpless, having only one leg, and for a time I thought I had not gained any advantage by leaving my room and crawling to the fire escape.

WALKED A PLANK.

"Finally some watchman secured a plank and pushed it across from the one-story extension back of Steinway's and about ten feet from the Jefferson balcony fire escape. Perhaps thirty people crawled across this board to the roof and escaped.

"There was considerable difficulty in getting many of the timid ones to risk themselves on this narrow plank, as the darkness below made it look as if we were fifty feet from the ground. However, the crackling flames in the rear and the shouts of those at the windows acted as an incentive and the hesitating ones were thus induced to cross the plank in safety.

"As I sat on the balcony waiting for the board to come dozens of valises, dress suit cases, personal belongings and articles of clothing passed me with a whirr.

"Guests had thrown them from the windows before climbing down the fire escape. At one time more than a dozen people were climbing down the iron ladder at the same time, few of them wearing anything more than their night clothes.

"Many of these were cut by glass, but none was seriously injured. Several of the women inmates were so badly frightened they had to be carried across the plank."

PROFESSOR GARNER ALL RIGHT.

Boston, Jan. 30.—F. A. Merrill, of this city, who, acting for the Boston parties interested in the work of Prof. R. L. Garner, several days ago cabled money to Professor Garner, has received reply by cable that the money has been delivered to the explorer. This is taken as conclusive evidence that Professor Garner, who had been reported dead, is alive and is prosecuting his investigations. A letter from him is expected soon.

THE ROOT OF THE MATTER.

He Cured Himself of Serious Stomach Trouble Down to First Principles.

A man of large affairs in one of our prominent eastern cities by too close attention to business, too little exercise and too many club dinners, finally began to pay nature's tax, levied in the form of chronic stomach trouble; the failure of his digestion brought about a nervous irritability making it impossible to apply himself to his daily business and finally deranging the kidneys and heart.

In his own words he says: "I consulted one physician after another, and each one seemed to understand my case, but all the same they each failed to bring about the return of my former digestion, appetite and vigor. For two years I went from pillar to post, from one sanitarium to another; I gave up smoking, I quit coffee and even renounced my daily glass or two of beer, but without any marked improvement.

"Friends had often advised me to try a well known proprietary medicine, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and I had often perused the newspaper advertisements of the remedy, but never took any stock in advertised medicines, nor could believe a fifty-cent patent medicine would touch my case.

"To make a long story short, I finally bought a couple of packages at the nearest drug store and took two or three tablets after each meal, and occasionally a tablet between meals when I felt any feeling of nausea or discomfort.

"I was surprised at the end of the first week to note a marked improvement in my appetite and general health and before the two packages were gone I was certain that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets was going to cure completely and they did not disappoint me. I can eat and sleep and enjoy my coffee and cigar and no one would suppose I had ever known the horrors of dyspepsia.

"Out of friendly curiosity I wrote to the proprietors of the remedy asking for information as to what the tablets contained and they replied that the principal ingredients were aseptic pepsin (government test), malt diastase and other natural digestives, which digest food regardless of the condition of the stomach."

The root of the matter is this, the digestive elements contained in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest the food, give the overworked stomach a chance to recuperate, and the nerves and whole system receive the nourishment which can only come from food; stimulants and nerve tonics never give real strength; they give a fictitious strength, invariably followed by reaction. Every drop of blood, every nerve and tissue is manufactured from our daily food, and if you can insure its prompt action and complete digestion by the regular use of so good and wholesome a remedy as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets you will have no need of nerve tonics and sanitariums.

Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets have been in the market only a few years, yet probably every druggist in the United States, Canada and Great Britain now sells them and consider them the most popular and successful of any preparation for stomach troubles.

stein, in behalf of King Edward, and various officials of King Edward's household.

His majesty's equerry delivered an autograph message from King Edward to King Charles and the latter and his suite were immediately driven in royal carriages to Buckingham Palace.

King Charles was warmly greeted by the fair-sized crowds which gathered along the route in anticipation of his arrival. There was no military escort.

King Edward visited the King of Portugal shortly afterwards and subsequently proceeded to Osborne. Large assemblages everywhere awaited King Edward and the greetings were very enthusiastic.

During the course of the morning King Edward presided at a meeting of the privy council. The business transacted was of a formal character. The kings of Belgium and Greece will arrive here this afternoon.

WARSHIPS ASSEMBLE.

Portsmouth, Jan. 30.—The warships are already assembling for Friday's great naval pageant. The arrangements, which have been completed, provide that eight torpedo boat destroyers will lead the procession from Cowes, followed by the royal yacht Alberta, with the queen's body on board. The royal yacht Victoria and Albert, with King Edward and Queen Alexandria and the English royal family; the royal yacht Osborne, with other royal personages; the imperial yacht Hohenzollern, with Emperor William, the duke and duchess of Connaugh and others; the admiralty yacht Enchantress and a Trinity house yacht, with officials on board.

The main squadron of battleships and cruisers will be moored two and a half cables apart in one line extending from Cowes to Spithead.

The channel fleet, under the command of Vice Admiral Sir Harry Holdsworth Rawson, will form the eastern portion, and the reserve fleet, under Rear Admiral Sir Gerald Henry Noel, will form the western portion.

The foreign war vessels are to be moored southwest of the British ships in the order of their arrival, and alongside of them will be moored eight British gunboats, the Antelope, Gleanor, Skip Jack, Leda, Rattlesnake, Alert, Circe and Speedwell. After leaving Trinity pier the Alberta, with her attendant escort, will steam along the deep channel between the coast of the Isle of Wight and the single line of battleships and cruisers. The main line will be as follows, beginning at Cowes:

The Alexandra, Camperdown, Rodney, Benbow, Collingwood, Colossus, Sans Pareil, Nile, Howe, Melampus, Severn, Galatea, Bellona, Pactolus, Perelus, Diana, Conqueror, Arrogant, Minerva, Niobe, Hero, Hood, Trafalgar, Resolution, Jupiter, Hannibal, Mars, Prince George and Majestic.

On arrival at Portsmouth the royal yachts will remain in the harbor that night.

ABOURT THE COURT HOUSE.

The county commissioners are today conducting a sale of all the old furniture, tables, chairs, desks, pigeon-holes and other stuff left in the old Saengerbund hall. A roomfull of stuff in the new buildings was also disposed of. The articles brought fair prices considering their character.

Deputy Sheriff Ecks is wrestling with a case of grip. He is still at his desk, however.

This afternoon Justices Huser and Bullerman and Drs. Ladd and Stutz are inquiring into the sanity of George Knoder.

W. H. McIntyre sues the Kerr Murray Manufacturing company for $300 to recover on contract. The plaintiff lives at Ashley and says he ordered a boiler of the defendant, for which he paid $200. The boiler failed to stand the test and was pronounced defective and hence refused by plaintiff, who returned it. The defendant has refused to accept the returned boiler and refuses to refund the money, hence the suit.

Wilhelm Buchel sues Wilhelm Heider on a note for $325.

The decorators are today erecting a tall scaffolding in the main vestibule on the office floor of the court house and will commence gilding the cornices and borders tomorrow.

BEFORE JUDGE AIKEN.

In the case of Johnson vs. the Fort Wayne Traction company the defendant took a change of venue and the cases were sent to Whitley county.

Similar action was taken in the case of Cull vs. the Lake Erie and Western Railroad company.

In the cases of Scott and Ames vs. the Wabash Railroad company motion was made to dismiss for want of prosecution.

In the case of Scott vs. Quinn, appealed from a justices' court, judgment was for the defendant and the plaintiff was ordered to pay the costs.

The case of Folgs vs. Hildebrand is on trial before the court.

SUBSIDY BILL IS DEBATED

SENATE TAKES UP SHIPPING MEASURE.

Washington, Jan. 30.—In the senate today Mr. Clapp, the new senator from Minnesota, presented the credentials of his colleague, Mr. Nelson. Mr. Burrows, of Michigan, also presented the credentials of Mr. McMillan as senator from Michigan, elected for the full term of six years from the 4th of March next.

The senate agreed to a resolution introduced by Mr. Jones, of Arkansas, requesting the secretary of war to inform the senate whether the executive council of Porto Rico has agreed to guarantee dividends to corporations doing business in that island.

The conference report upon the army reorganization bill was then presented by Mr. Hawley.

Mr. Hawley explained the report and said the committee on conference had introduced no new legislation in the bill. Mr. Hale asked especially whether there had been any increase of officers in any instance over the numbers permitted by the bill either as it passed the house or the senate.

Mr. Hawley replied in the negative, but Mr. Butler, of North Carolina, insisted that there had been an increase of color sergeants in the artillery provision.

At 2 o'clock the army reorganization conference report, which was under discussion in the senate, gave way to the subsidy bill. Notice was given that the army bill would be called up again tomorrow.

IN THE HOUSE.

Washington Jan. 30.—When the house met today Mr. Taylor, of Ohio, chairman of the committee on elections No. 1, submitted the report of the contested election case of Walker vs. Rhea, from the Ninth Virginia district. The committee found that while gross frauds and irregularities occurred in the election, they fell very far short of changing the result. The committee therefore recommended that Mr. Rhea, the sitting member, who is a democrat, should retain his seat.

Messrs. Linney, of North Carolina, and Samuel Davenport, of Pennsylvania, dissented from the conclusion of the majority and were given leave to file their views. The report will be called up in the near future.

The house then resumed the consideration of the agricultural appropriation bill.

The sections of the present law relating to the scientific bureaus of the department were substituted for the provisions in the bill which went out yesterday on a point of order made by Mr. Mahone, of Pennsylvania.

NEW SWITCHBOARDS IN.

The National Telephone and Telegraph company has just installed a new switchboard in its Auburn station. The new board has 300 drops, with a capacity of double that number, and displaces two old boards. On Sunday a similar board will be installed at Kendallville, displacing three of the old pattern. The change in both instances is made necessary by growing business of the exchanges.

The main changes in the contract drawn up for the 1901 season related to the farming, trading and releasing clauses. With the National agreement out of the constitution, the paragraphs in the contract governing a player's transfer to the older body were, of course, stricken off. Hereafter, no American league player is to be sold or traded to another club, excepting with his consent, and in case of a sale, the financial arrangements must be satisfactory to the player. Instead of a three days' release notice, as heretofore, the time will hereafter be ten. Farming is abolished, save where a player would personally prefer to take a temporary place with some smaller team.

AGED MAN SUICIDES.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 30.—Edward Cornell, a retired hat manufacturer and for many years president of the Hatters' union, committed suicide by hanging last night. Heavy losses in the stock market is ascribed to have prompted the act. Mr. Cornell was 78 years old.

M. Baltes, who was taken suddenly ill at noon yesterday, is still confined to his bed, but his physician, Dr. E. J. McOscar, stated this afternoon that the condition of the patient was more encouraging.

REUBEN S. PATTERSON.

Forewarned, Forearmed.

The liability to disease is greatly lessened when the blood is in good condition, and the circulation healthy and vigorous. For then all refuse matter is promptly carried out of the system; otherwise it would rapidly accumulate—fermentation would take place, the blood become polluted and the constitution so weakened that a simple malady might result seriously.

A healthy, active circulation means good digestion and strong, healthy nerves.

As a blood purifier and tonic S. S. S. has no equal. It is the safest and best remedy for old people and children because it contains no minerals, but is made exclusively of roots and herbs.

No other remedy so thoroughly and effectually cleanses the blood of impurities. At the same time it builds up the weak and debilitated, and renovates the entire system. It cures permanently all manner of blood and skin troubles.

Mr. E. E. Kelly, of Urbana, O., writes: "I had Eczema on my hands and face for five years. It would break out in little white pustules, crusts would form and drop off, leaving the skin red and inflamed. The doctors did me no good. I used all the medicated soaps and salves without benefit. S. S. S. cured me, and my skin is as clear and smooth as any one's."

Mrs. Henry Siegfried, of Cape May, N. J., says that twenty-one bottles of S. S. S. cured her of Cancer of the breast. Doctors and friends thought her case hopeless.

Richard T. Gardner, Florence, S. C., suffered for years with Boils. Two bottles of S. S. S. put his blood in good condition and the Boils disappeared.

A SCANDAL AIRED

ALLEGED ABUSE OF GIRLS AT WOMAN'S PRISON.

LEGISLATURE MAY INQUIRE

STORM RAISED AT INDIANA INDUSTRIAL SCHOOL.

GIRLS HAVE BEEN WHIPPED

SUPERINTENDENT ADMITS USE OF LEATHER STRAPS.

Indianapolis, Jan. 30.—Charges that the girls of the Indiana industrial school have been whipped with leather straps may lead to an official investigation on the part of the state. Evidence in the case of a sensational character is now in the hands of the state legislative commission, which the governor appointed to investigate the state institutions and to report to the general assembly. Governor Durbin, who personally is cognizant of the facts in the case, is not willing that the commission should lay the charges before him at this time. A bill was introduced in the legislature yesterday, however, by Representative James, secretary of the state legislative commission, providing for the entire abolishment of the present board of the industrial school and for the appointment of a new board in its stead.

SEVERAL SERIOUS CHARGES.

The charges point to cruelty on the part of the head of the institution to girl inmates of the school, it having been alleged and supported by members of the commission that girls have been whipped with a round leather strap the size of one's little finger; that they are deprived of the use of mirrors, and that they are allowed to eat butter only once a week. It is also charged that proper attention has not been given to inmates who were ill, and that other inmates have been mistreated. While, as is generally the case in such matters, it is believed the charges are exaggerated, there is no doubt that they are in part true.

REPRESENTATIVE WROUGHT UP

Representative James, who visited the institution with Governor Durbin and other members of the legislative commission, said yesterday he had personal knowledge of cruelties at the institution. He had seen the strap with which girls were whipped and had learned from officers of the institution the methods of punishment. A leather belt taken from a sewing machine, he said, was used on the heads of girls who disobeyed the rules, and was used also on other parts of their bodies. A table was pointed out to him, he said, over which girls were compelled to bend while punishment was administered by the strap method. While inspecting the institution he declared he saw a girl of thirteen years locked up in a room, seemingly without attention. The girl had a high fever and seemed in immediate need of care. He heard of another girl, said to have been brought to the institution the same day, who was ill and apparently not herself.

NO MIRRORS FOR THE GIRLS.

The commission discovered, he said, no mirrors had been provided for the girls' rooms, while the woman prisoners of the institution were allowed the use of mirrors. The institution embraces the Indiana woman's prison and the Indiana industrial school for girls, both under the same roof. Mr. James said Governor Durbin accompanied the commission and saw the same things the other members saw. It was not necessary, he said, for the commission to lay evidence before him. The governor is unwilling, said the representative, that the matter should be laid before him officially at this time. He would not say when the commission would place the matter in the hands of the governor. As for himself, he was satisfied there should be a change, and it was with such a change in view that he introduced his bill to abolish the board. The bill provides that there shall be one male member of the board. The board is now composed entirely of women.

ADMITS WHIPPINGS.

Miss Sarah F. Keely, superintendent of the institution, and who has held that position for a number of years, said the charges had been grossly exaggerated. She admitted that the girls had been whipped with the leather strap, but she said it had been found necessary to do so. The girls in the institution were worse than the average, she declared. They were from the streets, and girls who were unruly, and whipping at times was a necessity in the administration of the institution. She deplored the fact that the affair had received so great publicity locally, and hoped it would not be kept alive by the newspapers.

BASE BALL NOTES.

The base ball war seems to have opened with a loud bang and is now on in earnest. The American league adjourned yesterday after a two days' session and President Johnson says it will go ahead and do business just the same a though the National league had never happened. Dates will be scheduled without a particle of regard for National dates and clubs will be put in all principal cities. Captain Duffy, of the Bostons, has signed a contract to manage Milwaukee and "Chief" Zimmer, president of the Players' Protective association, says that his men will go over to the American in a body unless the National magnates come to their terms and all around "there is heaps o' trouble in sight." The National league meeting is not due until February 13 and what will be done in the meantime is hard to conjecture.

Bobby Quinn, with last year's Columbus team, is in the city. Bobby is now a traveling man but says he would go into base ball again if he can find a good berth in the Interstate. He says the Interstate is the best league on earth, bar none, but he does not believe that Columbus will be in it this year. He favors Anderson and says he would manage a team there if it was placed on the Interstate map.

Speaking of Hugh Duffy, President Soden said that Duffy is bound to the Boston club by the option clause in his contract, notwithstanding the fact that Duffy failed to sign a contract last season. Duffy signed a contract for 1899, giving the Boston club an option on his services for the following year (1900) and the two years following, and Mr. Soden says this holds him. The chances are that Duffy never looked at his contract, and, like all players in general, signed the document as presented to him. If he will examine it he will find the option holds him for two more years. This is the way President Soden puts it. Speaking of Duffy, Mr. Soden said further: "We would, no doubt, have given Duffy his release to go with one of the clubs of the American association, but we would not be expected to waive our right when the player decided to go with an opposition league."

"Although I have retired from base ball and am rid of the uncertainties of the business," writes Frank Torreyson, the erstwhile nomad of the Interstate league, "I still retain my love of the game and it is interesting to me to watch the troubles now agitating the different leagues. It is a source of gratification to me that several of the managers of different Interstate teams who did their utmost to give me trouble, are getting a chance to swallow some of the medicine they tried to give me.

"During my four years' connection with the league, everyone of my players received his salary and the league all its dues. When I retired I could see trouble ahead and am glad I did so before the final throw down."

There is no doubt that Torreyson always paid his men, but is equally certain that he milked at least three towns as dry as tinder. But then the fan is the legitimate prey of the magnate. Torreyson is now running a billiard hall in Braddock.

Manager Frank Selee, of the Boston club, is quoted as follows by an eastern writer:

"If it comes to the worst, you will find that the National league will put its price down to 25c and play on the same dates as the American league club here."

Charley Strobel, of Toledo, is still looking about for some good league to join. He declares the Interstate will not do, and sooner than play in a minor circuit he will abandon his ball park.

The Terre Haute Base Ball association does not know which of two offers for a place in a league to accept. The Interstate league was the first to ask Terre Haute to join, but the later invitation from the proposed reorganized Central league is thought to be the best for Terre Haute to accept. The Terre Haute association secured $2,000 capital stock a few days ago with which to ask for membership in the Interstate league, but since then a meeting has been called for the Central league at Peoria Wednesday. It is proposed to have the following cities in this league: Cedar Rapids, Rock Island, Rockford, Quincy, Bloomington, Decatur, Peoria and Terre Haute. It is reported that the towns all have good backing this year, and that each can put up sufficient guarantee money to make sure that the town will stay in during the season.

All eyes are now turned toward Cleveland, where the players hold their meeting next Friday. Indications point to a blaze of excitement, with some developments which may give much anguish to the National league.

No reserve clauses exist in the new contract, as the withdrawal from the national agreement did away with the old custom of sending a reserve list to Nick Young. Each of the American league magnates agrees to respect the other fellows' claims on players, and that is all the "reservation" that is permitted.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Jan. 30.—Wheat worked lower during the forenoon today under the influence of Liverpool's continued indifference to advances on this side. May opened 1/4@1/2c lower at 76 3/8c to 76 1/4c and sold to 75 7/8c. After the first rush to unload the market steadied somewhat on covering. Local receipts were 34 cars, 3 of contract grade. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 265 cars against 340 last week and 274 a year ago.

May later dropped to 75 1/4c, but recovered on the world's visible decrease to 76 1/4c and closed steady, 1/2@3/4c lower at 76@76 1/4c.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Jan. 30.—The market was feverish and irregular in tone in the opening dealings and trading was largely congested on the few prominent stocks. Five thousand shares of St. Paul sold at 150 to 152 1/2, compared with 151 3/8 last night, and 5,000 shares of Northern Pacific sold at 81 3/4 to 82, compared with 82 1/8 last night. Steel and Wire broke 1 1/4 and Erie first preferred 1 1/8. The opening sales of Southern Pacific were of 15,000 shares at 47 3/8 down to 47, compared with 47 last night. Mobile and Ohio rose buoyantly 3 1/8 and Rock Island advanced 1 3/8. The Chicago Terminal transfer stocks were up a point each.

Rock Island was the overshadowing feature of the market, advancing strongly to 126 1/4 on very large buying. Other stocks were pushed steadily upward, including the Atchisons, Southerns and Kansas and Texas. Earlier losses were wiped out in St. Paul, Northern Pacific and Steel and Wire, these stocks selling from 1/8 to 3/4 above yesterday's close. But little interest was manifested in the specialties, and the railroads generally did not respond notably to the strength of the few most active stocks.

Southern Pacific encountered very large offerings. When Rock Island reacted 1 1/2 prices fell back, St. Paul dropping to below the opening level.

Business became quiet during the early part of the second hour and the general pressure ceased. A rise to 57 in Kansas and Texas preferred encouraged bidding up elsewhere and St. Paul and Federal Steel responded sharply. Later Kansas and Texas preferred dipped to 54 1/2 but the advance was taken up by Louisville, Brooklyn Transit and New York Central. The earlier strong stocks did not recover fully to the best.

Bonds were firm all around.

SHAKESPEARE'S MANUSCRIPT.

The Sothern-Harned revival of "Hamlet" has awakened curiosity as to the whereabouts of the original manuscript of that masterpiece of English literature. Could anyone discover Shakespeare's manuscripts and offer these literary gems for sale a million of money would readily be offered, not only by private collectors, but by the various national libraries and museums eager to obtain relics of such immense importance. Apart from the historical value they would possess, Shakespeare's manuscripts would have another supreme interest. They would, no doubt, assist in settling the disputed authorship of the plays. They could be compared with the existing specimens of the great poet's handwriting. Would they show the same caligraphy as that of the signatures on Shakespeare's will, on the Blackfriears estate deeds and the copy of Florio's "Montaigne," possessed by the British museum? As to the latter being in the actual hand of the master some doubt exists, but the authenticity of the former specimens has never been questioned. Shakespeare's manuscripts have vanished, disappeared as though they had never existed. Mr. Sothern's prompt book of "Hamlet" is based upon the 1603 printed folio edition, which was taken down in shorthand by play pirates in the pit of the Globe theater, London, during the time when Shakespeare himself was stage manager and played the ghost.

GEOLOGIST ASKS $1,500,000.

Duluth, Minn., Jan. 30.—H. W. Pearson, of this city, has brought suit against J. J. Hill and the Great Northern railroad to recover $1,500,000. The coal lands in Montana involved are claimed to be worth $14,600,000. They are held by Hill interests, and it is alleged were taken after discovery by Pearson under a contract by which Pearson was to have a share in the profits. Pearson after twenty years' study evolved the floodwood theory of the formation of coal beds. He has tested this theory all over the world, and while keeping it secret has by its use discovered new coal areas, notably the Stockett mines in Montana and areas on the Pacific coast. He asserts that the Hill interests secured thousands of acres under his direction and are now mining 1,600 tons daily. For a share of the profits of this operation he now sues.

HEARD BLUFFTON PASTOR.

HAS CALLED COMMITTEE.

Chairman Keegan has issued a call for a meeting of the republican county central committee to be held at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The notifications to the members urge attendance and state that "important business" is to come before the body. Just what that important business may prove to be can only be conjectured, but there is a suspicious winking of the eye that may indicate that something is about to drop.

SHOP AND RAIL

CHAIRMAN HUNNEWELL RESIGNS HIS POSITION.

IS NINETY-ONE YEARS OLD

AND HAS RAILROADED FOR A HALF CENTURY.

WELL KNOWN SHOPMAN GOES

J. E. PIKE WILL RETIRE TO A FARM TO LIVE.

Chairman H. H. Hunnewell, of the board of directors of the Kansas City, Memphis and Birmingham, has tendered his resignation. It will be accepted at the next meeting of the board of directors. Mr. Hunnewell is nearly ninety-one years old and has been chairman of the board since 1884. Prior to that time he had been president of the Kansas City, Fort Scott and Gulf, the predecessor of the Memphis, from 1876 to his election as chairman of the board. Mr. Hunnewell is one of the best known figures among the pioneers of the railroad world. In addition to service on the boards of many roads west of the Mississippi, he has also been director of the Illinois Central, Michigan Central; Detroit, Lansing and Northern; Chicago and West Michigan, and Detroit and Bay City.

MACHINISTS' BALL.

Last evening Friendship lodge, No. 70, International Association of Machinists, selected the committees for the coming ball. They are as follows:

Arrangements—Henry Lapp, jr., Val Werkman and Marion B. Johnson.

Floor—W. B. Feriter, F. Kaiser and J. J. Conroy.

Reception—E. H. Cherry, F. Rops, Mart Naigel, T. Pritchard, John F. Gribben and W. H. J. Schultz.

The members report a good ticket sale and indications point to a big crowd and a good time. The ball occurs on the evening of February 19. Reineke will furnish the music and Caterer W. Sidel will officiate in the banquet hall.

COMMENCE A NEW ORDER.

This morning the men in the Pittsburg blacksmith shop and those in the car machine shop who are engaged in making supplies for new cars, began the work of getting out the material for sixty-five horse cars of the Pennsylvania standard pattern.

THEY LAUGH AT STORY.

A correspondent at Terre Haute, Ind., sent the following to the St. Louis Globe-Democrat: "Vandalia officials laugh at the story told from Churubusco and Richmond to the effect that the Vandalia is to buy the Eel River road and build on to Detroit. They simply call attention to the fact that the Vandalia is in the hands of a receiver, and is likely to remain there several years, while the litigation in which the state of Indiana is trying to collect many hundred thousand dollars is going through the courts."

WANT TO WIND UP AFFAIRS.

Portland, Ore., Jan. 30.—Suit has been started in the United States court to wind up the affairs of the Columbia Southern railroad and to distribute its assets among the stockholders. Charles Altschul, of San Francisco, owner of the land grant of the Williamette Valley and Cascade Mountain military wagon road, and Thomas D. Bombant, of New York, stockholders, are the complainants. The petitioners allege E. F. Lyttle, president of the Columbia Southern railway, is attempting to wreck the company, and further allege that the Oregon Steamship and Navigation company will be glad to become the exclusive owner of the Columbia Southern.

BRAKEMAN HURT.

W. B. Welsh, a Pennsylvania brakeman, is confined to a boarding house in South Chicago with injuries received at an early hour this morning by falling from the gangway of the engine he was riding upon. It is understood that his injuries consist of bruises and cuts upon the head, but just how serious they are is not known by the writer. The railway company's surgeon at South Chicago is attending Mr. Welsh. He will probably be brought home tonight or tomorrow.

BOILERMAKER INJURED.

Charles Swain received an ugly wound on his left wrist while at work in the Wabash shops at 7:30 o'clock last evening. He was cutting off bolt heads, when one of them struck him and inflicted the wound. The company's surgeon dressed the wounded arm.

WILL MOVE TO A FARM.

J. E. Pike and wife are preparing to remove to their farm, near Warsaw, where they expect to reside the remainder of their days. The change will be made in hopes that it will restore Mr. Pike to health, he having been ailing for several months. Mr. Pike has been steadily employed in the Pearl street factory of the Deither brothers for twelve years.

Detective Thomas Wilkinson, of the Nickel Plate, is on duty again after an illness of a week.

Harvey Crane left for Pittsburg last night in the interest of the Fort Wayne Electric company.

After a ten days' illness, H. J. Motherwell resumed his duties in the Pittsburg tin shop this morning.

Mrs. Seemann, wife of the Pittsburg shopman, William Seemann, is quite sick at her home, 108 Hayden street.

J. J. Peppler, of the Pittsburg lumber yards, is in the country today to attend the funeral of his grandmother.

The Michigan Central has awarded contracts for six large passenger engines, several hundred box cars and 100 flat cars.

On February 10 the officials of the Illinois Central will celebrate with a banquet the fiftieth anniversary of the incorporation of the company.

Nickel Plate engine 66 has been turned over to the eastern division for service after receiving general repairs at the Stony Island shops.

The new shops of the Santa Fe at Point Richmond were opened for business last week and will give employment to several hundred machinists and mechanics.

Jacob Houck, carpenter, and Fred Kerte, teamster, have recovered from the grip and returned to their respective duties at the Rhinesmith & Simonson factory.

M. DeVitt, who resigned as brakeman on the Nickel Plate eighteen months ago to engage in other work in Ohio, has returned here and taken his old position on the road.

Dr. C. B. Stemen, who is attending Engineer William Bender and Fireman Jerome, the two men so severely injured a few days ago, reports the patients getting along nicely.

Frank Sarver, foreman of the Pittsburg boiler shop, received news of the death of his grandmother, at Pittsburg. He left immediately for that city to attend the funeral.

February 15 has been fixed upon as the date to put on two new fast trains between Philadelphia and Buffalo by the Pennsylvania Railroad company, the trains to cover the distance in eleven hours.

Among the shipments from the electric works today were a large switchboard to the Amazon Knitting Mills, Muskegon, Mich., and a sixty-light arc dynamo to Mariette, Ohio.

Andy Umrhine, a cooper, has resigned his position at the Anthony Wayne Washing Machine works and will go to Missouri to reside. The vacant place in the shop has been taken by Isaac Striebe.

Commencing Tuesday, February 12, and continuing until May 1, there will be weekly excursion trains out of Chicago for California. The fare will be $30, one-half of the lowest previous cheap rates.

Division and General Western Freight Agent William Borner, of the Pennsylvania lines, will make a trip over the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago tomorrow. He will start from Chicago and travel on a special train.

Nickel Plate Conductor J. Hibinger laid off yesterday to attend to some private business. J. H. Kepler, a brakeman on the same road, is also taking a lay off. Brakeman W. B. Pierce resumed work yesterday after a few days' rest.

Engineer and Mrs. Joseph Stewart entertained at pedro last evening. The first prize was carried off by Passenger Brakeman A. B. Townley and the consolation by Conductor A. J. Zurbach. Refreshments were served at 11 o'clock.

A. T. West, clerk in Chief Dispatcher W. H. Tigar's office, is sick and Louis Finan, an operator, has been called to perform the clerical duties. Mr. Finan filled the office several months a year ago and is familiar with the duties.

A crank pin on Nickel Plate switch engine 201 broke yesterday and immediately both sides of the locomotive were stripped of side and connecting rods and some of the trimmings. The engine has gone to the Stony Island shops for repairs.

E. M. Hall, the Grand Rapids and Indiana brakeman who has been off duty for some time with an injured shoulder, is now confined to his bed with a severe attack of stomach trouble. This additional affliction will prolong Mr. Hall's term of disability. He hoped to be able to resume work next week.

George W. Cobb died in a St. Louis hospital last Sunday after undergoing a surgical operation for a malady with which he had been afflicted for some months. Mr. Cobb was prominent in Y. M. C. A. work. He was once secretary of the Indianapolis association and later of the Kansas City association. He was in the latter office when taken with the malady which has resulted in his death.

George Telley, night round house foreman of the Pittsburg, is sick. The following shopmen are also sick: Barney Weber, Henry Geerken, sr., John White, Henry Geerken, jr., Peter Rible, E. H. Litot, L. M. Murray, A. Shannon and H. F. Krohne. The shopmen reporting for duty this morning after a sickness were Tony Fisher, J. J. Crawford and L. Moore. John Haudenschield, who was off duty on account of sickness in his family, also reported.

The Central road of New Jersey and its conductors have compromised a difference which at one time threatened serious consequences. Grand Master Clark, of the Order of Railway Conductors, was working in the interest of peace, and as a result of his labors an agreement was made whereby passenger conductors will receive $3.25 per day of twelve hours and extra pay for overtime; freight conductors are to receive 28 cents an hour, ten hours a day's work.

William Hurlburt was yesterday promoted from freight to passenger fireman on the Nickel Plate. He has been assigned to runs 1 and 4 on the third district with Engineer Leonard.

The boilermakers in the Erie shops at Susquehanna, who have been on strike for several days, were on Saturday paid off and discharged. The company is making no effort to fill their places.

Ed Lagemas and Frank Barr, boilermakers in the Wabash shops, were added to the list of grip victims this morning. In that department there are fifty-eight names on the pay rolls and today sixteen of them are absent on account of sickness. This statement will serve to show how serious is the grip epidemic among the shopmen. Not all of the shops are as badly crippled as the Wabash boiler shop, but, as one of the foremen said, what they "have in that line is a plenty."

SAW VESSEL BURNING AT SEA

MEN WERE SEEN CLINGING TO THE RIGGING

The Governor Blake Makes Report at Mobile—Was Unable to Effect Rescue

New York, Jan. 29.—A special to the Journal and Advertiser from Mobile, Ala., says:

The British steamer Governor Blake, which arrived here from Grand Cayman, brought the news of the destruction of a bark by fire at sea.

Presumably the entire crew perished on the vessel which is supposed to have been the Mary from New York.

Seamen could be seen clinging to the rigging, but the vessel was enveloped in flames and rescue was impossible.

Capt. James Hunter, of the Governor Blake, said he sighted the burning vessel 100 miles from Mobile bay. It was just at dark and but for the high sea prevailing at that time the Blake's crew would have gone to the rescue.

"When we sighted the bark," said Capt. Hunter, "she seemed to be a mass of flame. We were riding head on before the storm and were in imminent danger ourselves. We made several attempts to go to the rescue but the wind was so high and the sea so heavy that we were compelled to abandon our efforts to rescue and give our attention to saving our selves.

"We saw members of the crew of the unfortunate bark up in the rigging making signals to us and while we were in sight two men jumped from the yard arms into the sea.

"We judged that nothing could save the vessel as she seemed to be afire all over."

GRAND BOXING CONTEST.

A grand boxing contest will be given by the St. Joe Athletic club at their club house, on North Spy Run avenue, on Friday evening. There will be five events between local boxers of note and others, as follows: Four-round go at 133 pounds; five-round go at 146 pounds; three-round go at 156 pounds; five-round go at 173 pounds, and a six-round go at 186 pounds, the latter event for points. Fred Miller, the champion bag puncher of the club, will give an exhibition of his abilities. This contest will be one of the best ever given by the club and from present indications there will be an unusually large attendance.
